Life Sentences Are Given Four In Bulgaria

Four Other Protestant Ministers Are Given Prison Terms Of 15 Years

OTHERS TRIED, GET LESSER SENTENCES (BULLETIN)

SOFIA, March 8.—(INS)—Four top Bulgarian Protestant ministers were sentenced today on conviction by the Communist government court of spying for the United States and Britain.

The four pastors escaped the death penalty demanded for them by the government prosecutor, Dimitar Georgiev.

They were all fined one million leva each.

(There is no official rate of exchange posted for the leva, but unofficially it is estimated that 1,000,000 leva is the equivalent of about $3.40.)

Life Sentences

Those receiving life sentences are:
Rev. Vassil Ziapkoff, 48 head of the Congregationalists.
Rev. Nikola Mihailov, 49, head of the Baptists.
Rev. Yanko Ivanov, 48, head of the Methodists.
Georgi Cherven, 46, head of the Pentecostal church.

They and 11 other defendants have 15 days in which to appeal the decision announced at 3 p.m.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Still another harbinger of spring was observed in the west side section on Monday when a large sign pointed out "Plants for Sale."

Local residents in many sections should look forward to extensive sidewalk repairs as spring approaches. Many of the old flagstones which are in use in numerous areas have become cracked and are dangerous on which to walk.

Several new larger type mailboxes have been installed in residential sections of the city by postal authorities. Some of the older boxes became jammed and inoperative, thus the replacement.

Numerous stop signs about the city have been recently replaced or repainted, making them more legible. The work done by city employees is in keeping with their early start on spring work. The workers have taken advantage of the fine weather.

A lovely bed of crocuses has made its appearance on the lawn of a West Washington street residence. The flowers, which present a nice sight seemingly are blooming profusely and not disturbed by the unsettled weather conditions.

Special programs are being presented during the week by the various Girl Scout troops about the city and county. The young ladies are observing the thirty-seventh anniversary of the organization.

Flies, which normally make their appearance much later in the year have already put in their appearance. PA News is told. Warm weather has necessitated frequent opening of doors with some of the tiny winged creatures making their appearance.

According to press reports during the morning, the plane flown by Capt. Bill Odom, on the flight from Hawaii to New Jersey, non-stop over the air route across Pennsylvania in Mercer county, some miles north of New Castle between 9:30 and 10 o'clock today.

Campaign Here Sees Goal Exceeded For Infantile Paralysis Work

OVER $11,000 IS RAISED IN COUNTY

Lawrence county's 1949 campaign for funds for the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis found the goal of $10,000, which had been set here, exceeded by over a thousand dollars, it was revealed today by R. H. Forney, general chairman.

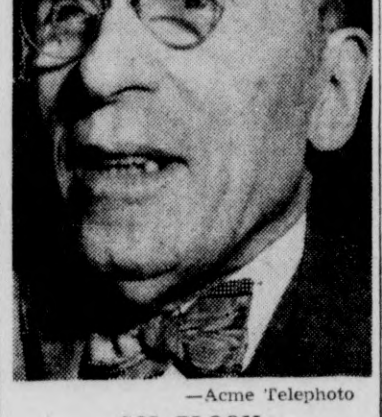

The campaign this year was sponsored by the New Castle Kiwanis club, with most of the members of the club taking an active part in the job.

The district outside of Ellwood City, which staged its own campaign, reported $7,706.53, Mr. Forney reported. Of this amount, $2,232.45 came from individual contributions secured through sending letters to all those persons who had motor vehicle registrations.

Other Sources
Other sources included $1,237.58 from the county schools; $911.93 (Continued on Page Two)

Congressman Bloom Is Taken By Death

New York Congressman Dies Suddenly Of Heart Attack On Monday Night

SOL BLOOM

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(INS)—Grieving members of Congress made plans today for the funeral of Rep. Sol Bloom (D) N. Y., which will replace the celebration he had planned tomorrow on his 74th birthday.

The colorful chairman of the House foreign affairs committee, who piloted through some of the most important foreign policy legislation of the last decade, died suddenly of a heart attack at 8:50 p. m. last night.

Cruiser Loaned To Russia Five Years Ago, Back

LEWES, Del., March 8.—(INS)—The 7,050-ton Scout Cruiser, U. S. S. Milwaukee, cruised leisurely off the Delaware Capes today with an 800-man Russian crew aboard.

Flying the hammer and sickle of the Soviet Union, the vessel is in the "homestretch" of an epic tour of duty with the Russian Navy.

Tomorrow or Thursday, the Milwaukee returns to American control after five years with the Russians on a long-lease basis.

A 100-man U. S. Navy crew is standing by in Lewes to take over the ship once the Soviet seamen quit the Milwaukee.

The Milwaukee, re-named the "Murmansk" by the Russians, is the first of 586 warcraft transferred to the Soviet government under lend lease during World War II to be returned to the United States.

Girl Scouts To Dine Thursday

Families To Be Guests At 37th Anniversary Of Girl Scout Week At Cathedral

Girl Scouts and their families will gather in the Cathedral for a banquet Thursday evening, March 10, at 6:30 o'clock to mark the 37th anniversary of the beginning of scouting in the United States.

The Girl Scout organization was started in this country by Miss Juliette Low, March 12, 1912.

Miss Emily Rice, commissioner, will serve as mistress of ceremonies during the program, when colors will be presented by Brownies. Scouts will participate in a "Pageant of Flags" and the skit, "A Polish Wedding."

City's Health Good During Mild Winter

Health Superintendent States Mild Winter Has No Affect No Health

Dr. W. A. Womer, health superintendent of the city, said today that, in his opinion, the recent mild weather will have no effect upon one's health. He said that health conditions during the winter have been good. He said the only possible outcome of the mild "spell" will be colds, because people will have a tendency to be out more, congregate, and pass on colds.

Draft Of North Atlantic Pact Sent To Nations

Envoys Of Nations Affected To Meet In Washington Later This Week

DANISH FOREIGN MINISTER TO JOIN

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 8.—A final draft of the North Atlantic Defense Pact which binds signatory powers to armed aid of any member attacked by a hostile force was sent today to the capitals of participating nations.

Envoys of the interested nations will meet again in Washington later this week for last-minute changes in the text as directed by the respective governments and will determine the time of publication.

They will be joined by Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen, who arrives in Washington Thursday to discuss his country's possible role in the historic alliance.

Principal Provision
Principal provision of the treaty, which has been in process since last July, is a commitment binding all powers to go to the aid, individually and collectively, including the use of armed force, of any party to the agreement made the victim of an attack.

The treaty must be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the senate before the United States can participate.

Designed to run for 20 years, the agreement must be renewed at the end of the first 10 years.

The pact defines the North Atlantic security area as running from the Tropic of Cancer northward. (Continued on Page Two)

Night Session Of Senate Is Forced

Effort To Break Filibuster Brings Call For Session Tonight

FILIBUSTER MAY HIT RENT CONTROL

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(INS)—Majority Leader Lucas (D) Ill., today pushes the senate into its first night session of the 81st congress in the effort to break the Dixie filibuster.

The leadership abandoned hope, however, for an initial test before next week on the move to halt the talkfest against tightening the senate's anti-filibuster rules.

Lucas said he will not file until Friday a cloture petition demanding an immediate vote on the "motion to take up" the proposed rule change.

Several Days For Debate
It was indicated that several days would be allowed for debate on any appeal from a ruling Vice-President Barkley then would have to make on whether cloture can be applied.

Meanwhile, two banking committee senators declared that if the leadership goes through with its rules change fight, there will be no rent control after March 31 when it expires.

Banking Committee Chairman Maybank (D) Ala., of the rent control subcommittee, both warned that the nation may lose rent control because, they said "somebody wants to change a senate rule."

Red Pickets At New York Trial

NEW YORK, March 8.—(INS)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina today over the task of selecting a jury today to try the eleven U. S. Community party leaders charged with conspiring to overthrow the government by force.

As the business of picking the jury went forward, Communist pickets carrying placards marched back and forth in Foley Square, across the street from the U. S. court house. Their signs carried slogans, such as:

"We want people's juries—not bosses' juries."
"Thirteen are on trial—the twelve Communists and you."
"No Reichstag fire trials—dismiss the indictments."

The demonstrators were heckled by a man who followed them, shouting: "Down with the traitors!"

Fairless Will Make Address At Westminster

President Of U. S. Steel Corporation To Be Commencement Speaker On June 6

WILL ALSO RECEIVE HONORARY DEGREE

Benjamin F. Fairless, president of U. S. Steel corporation, will deliver the commencement address at Westminster college this year, on June 6.

This announcement was made Monday at the meeting of the Westminster college board of trustees held at the University club, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Fairless will also be honored by conferring of a degree of LL.D. during the commencement ceremonies.

Others who are to receive degrees of D.D. at the same time include: Rev. Ferdinand E. Vogan of Mercer, Rev. Scott McMunn of Butler, Rev. Arthur French of Washington, Pa., and Rev. James Blackwood of Sunset, Hills, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Officers of Westminster trustees board were named at this time, with Rev. James M. Ferguson of Bellevue elected president; Attorney Clyde Armstrong, Pittsburgh, vice-president, and Attorney Robert N. Grier of Pittsburgh, secretary.

The building of a 10-unit apartment to accommodate faculty members of the college was discussed. A committee was selected to proceed with the arrangements: Judge W. W. Braham of New Castle, Norman Igo of New Wilmington, Attorney T. C. Cochran of Mercer and Attorney Thomas Mansell of New Wilmington.

Pyramid Club Promoters Warned

Allegheny County District Attorney Issues Warning On 'Get Rich Quick' Scheme

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—(INS)—Allegheny County District Attorney William S. Rahauser today warned promoters of the "get rich quick" Pyramid clubs to stay out of Allegheny county.

Rahauser, after a staff meeting Monday, blasted the clubs as "illegal" and "promoted by racketeers."

He said the organization is against public policy and the laws of the Commonwealth. And the D. A. threatened to prosecute all promoters.

Although mathematicians can prove that it requires 16,777,216 members to keep a club going 25 days, the hope of winning $4,096 has attracted thousands of Western Pennsylvania enthusiasts.

The clubs require that each new member chips in with $2 when he goes to his first party. That makes him number 12. Each night as his number diminishes—from 12 to 11 and so forth—he must bring two new members who each contribute $2.

The chain is repeated continuously. Theoretically, on the 12th night, the man at the top of the pyramid receives $4,096.

Danish Foreign Minister Arriving To Discuss Pact

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen is scheduled to arrive in Washington late today to discuss the possible role of his country in the North Atlantic alliance.

The powers already involved in drafting the historic mutual defense pact, however, are determined not to hold up completion of the treaty pending Denmark's adherence.

Rasmussen was directed by his parliament to come to Washington to study the proposed agreement. He will discuss the matter with Secretary of State Dean Acheson and study the draft agreement in its present form.

Expect Denmark To Join
Denmark's adherence is believed certain, particularly since Norway already has joined in the talks. Though she might come in too late to participate in the drafting work, it appears probable that Denmark would join in the final signing of the agreement late this month or early in April.

The envoys of the participating countries labored over the draft for almost three hours Monday. At (Continued on Page Two)

Premier Of China Resigns His Post

NANKING, March 8.—(INS)—Acting President Li Tsung-Jen accepted the resignation of Premier Sun Fo today and the action was believed a step toward negotiations with the Communists to end China's long and bitter civil war.

His successor has not as yet been named, but observers believe that Gen. Ho Ying-Chin may get the key post. Gen. Ho is a former minister of national defense who came to Nanking a month ago at Li's invitation.

President Goes To Orlando To Receive Degree

ORLANDO, Fla., March 8.—(INS)—President Truman flew to Orlando from Key West today to receive a degree of doctor of humanities at Rollins college.

The chief executive made the flight from the Boca Chica Naval Air station at Key West to Orlando's Army Air base in an hour and a quarter.

He was greeted by Florida Gov. Fuller Warren, Senator Claude Pepper and other dignitaries. After receiving honors at the base, Mr. Truman was driven to the city to dedicate a highway linking Orlando and Winter Park.

The highway is dedicated to the late Senator Charles O. Andrews of Florida.

President Truman then went to Rollins college for the ceremonies there.

Unemployment In Western Germany Showing Increase

BERLIN, March 8.—(INS)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay reported today that a continuing rise in unemployment in western Germany has sent the number of idle over the million mark.

The U. S. military governor's semi-monthly report disclosed that 1,019,000 Germans in the western-occupied Reich are now without work, and of this number about three-fourths are receiving some kind of aid.

During February, the report said, about 121,138 idle west Berliners received ten million marks in unemployment relief.

Flyer Lands At Teterboro, N. J., At Noon, After Being In Air 36 Hours

COMPLETES TRIP FROM HONOLULU (BULLETIN)

By JACK LOTTO
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

TETERBORO, N. J., March 8.—(INS)—Bill Odom, the 1949 "Lone Eagle," broke all non-stop, long distance flying records for small planes today when he landed at Teterboro airport, chomping and smiling, after a 5,000-mile hop from Honolulu.

TETERBORO, N. J., March 8.—Bill Odom, noted solo flyer, established a new non-stop, long-distance record for small planes today when he swept over Teterboro Air Terminal at the end of a flight from Honolulu.

He buzzed the terminal at 12:04 p. m. EST, completing the epic 5,000-mile flight in 35 hours and 59 minutes.

Odom's plane touched ground at 12:05 p. m.—making it a flat 36 hours for his amazing flight.

The tired, but happy airman, all alone in the single-engined Beececraft Bonanza, "Waikiki Beach," took off from Honolulu at 12:05 a. m. EST yesterday.

When he finally got down, the grinning airman said he had "13 or 14 gallons of gasoline left." He added:

"I had enough gas for another 300 miles. I felt just like a businessman making a short trip."

"When I got to the Rocky Mountain area I had to go 400 miles around a storm. Otherwise I would have been here much sooner."

The small, graceful Odom plane carried a red and black flag with stars, emblematic of the "Adventure Club."

Conserves Gas
Throughout the closing stages of the flight, the balding 29-year-old pilot kept his eyes glued to the instrument panel as he conserved his dwindling gasoline supply.

Left far behind was his own record of 2,401 miles, set last January 13 in the same scarlet and silver monoplane.

In his first attempt he turned back after reaching the mainland and landed at Oakland, California.

Odom—his full name is William P. Odom—has been a record breaker since April 1947 when he and Milton Reynolds, Chicago pen manufacturer, flew around the world in a converted A-26 attack bomber in 78 hours and 55 minutes.

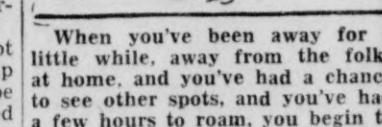

Four months later, Odom made the same trip alone in the same aircraft for a new record—73 hours and five minutes.

When you've been away for a little while, away from the folks at home, and you've had a chance to see other spots, and you've had a few hours to roam, you begin to long for the places you know, and the faces familiar to you, and to say hello to the gang you know, and who know what you like to do, and you sort of hanker to call a friend at night on the telephone and see what he's doing or if he'd like to step around to your home. Now the sights are pretty in other towns, but there's this I would like to say, they can't compare to the ones at home, it's 47 today.

JEANNE MONTANARY WED IN CINCINNATI

Following a honeymoon spent in Miami, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schanel of Cincinnati, O., have taken up residence in their newly furnished home at Losantville road, Cincinnati, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Schanel, the former Jeanne Montanary of New Castle, were united in marriage in the home of Alderman R. Wallace,
Cincinnati, friend of the groom,
January 31.

The bride was attired in a winter white suit accented with navy trim and navy accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids. Her costume was designed by "Irene".
Her only jewelry was a pair of earrings of gold spikes set with diamonds and rubies of a fan design, a gift of the groom. The couple was attended by Mrs. Dorothy Suzow, sister of the bride, of this city, and Louis Schanel, brother of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony there was a dinner served in the private dining room of the restaurant owned and operated by the groom. A reception was later held for over 200 guests.

Mrs. Schanel is the daughter of Mrs. Rose Montanary, formerly of New Castle, now of Ingleswood, Calif., and the late Gabriel Monta-nary. She attended New Castle high school and was formerly a featured skater with the "Ice Capades", appearing in various Ice
Revue throughout the country.
She was featured in the first American Ice Revue ever to play
Europe when she entertained in Paris in 1946.

Mr. Schanel is the son of Mrs.
Aaron Schanel and the late Aaron
Schanel of Cincinnati and Miami, Fla. He is a Cincinnati business man.

returned from a wedding trip to Detroit, Mich., and have taken up temporary residence with the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs.
Philip Kelley, of 1209 Huron avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, the former Clara Volpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Volpe, 14th street, El-liwood City, were united in marriage at a 3 o'clock ceremony performed
Sunday, February 27, at the St.
Elias Syrian Orthodox church, New Castle. Rev. Elias Nader officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a street-length dress of powder blue crepe with matching accessories and a matching heart-shaped hat with veiling to the shoulder. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and carnations centered with a purple orchid.

Miss Florence Jacobs of this city was maid of honor and William Fannin, also of this city, served as best man.

A wedding dinner was served to over 200 guests in the church basement, followed in the evening by a reception.

The bride is a graduate of Lincoln High school, Ellwood City, and the groom is a graduate of New Castle High school and served in the U. S. Navy, being in the Pacific theater of war.

Castledown and Rev. and Mrs.
Fred Kreh of New Wilmington were signally honored Monday evening by pastors and their wives of the Christian and Missionary Alliance churches of this district at a dinner meeting held in a local tearoom. The occasion marked the arrival of the new families into the district to serve Alliance churches.

Rev. Francis Johannides, pastor of the Hoover Heights Tabernacle, South New Castle, served as toastmaster, with Rev. J. H. Boon of the Pearson street church tendering the welcome. Harry Polding, pastor of the Leesburg church favored with a vocal selection. Rev.
Edward Truman of the Sampson street church conducted a Bible quiz. Concluding the fine program was a vocal selection, "Just a Little While", sung by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allison of the Washington Union Mission.

Other guests during the dinner included Rev. and Mrs. Edward Mink of Ellwood City and the wives of the pastors who participated in the program.

Economy Housing Meeting Is Set

Plans Will Be Broached By Federal Housing Leader On Building Program

HOPE TO BOOST HOME BUILDING

All plans have been completed for the launching of the local district's effort in the government's "Economy Housing Program" for 1949, whereby it is hoped to stimulate the building of needed housing units in the local community at the lowest possible cost.

Judge W. Walter Brahm is chairman of the local advisory committee which has been established to promote the plan locally, and will preside at Thursday's luncheon meeting in The Castle-ton, which is expected to be attended by representatives of all branches of business connected with the building industry. Any-one interested is welcome to attend this luncheon. It is stated, but reservations should be made with the Greater New Castle Association office by Wednesday noon.

Oakley W. Heselbarth, district director of the Federal Housing Administration, will be present to present the plan to the local leaders, and it is hoped that immediate action can be secured here.

Under the government's plan, it is desired that every corner that is possible to cut, be done without sacrificing quality, in order to produce low cost housing, and place it within the reach of those who need it the most.

The Greater New Castle Association is cooperating wholeheartedly in the program, and urges local builders to assist.

Meanest Man In Town Cited By City Police

Identity Not Known, Gets Title For Poisoning Several Dogs

Police today have a candidate for the title: "Meanest man in town." However, they do not know his identity, but would like to.

He is the one who poisoned the dog of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clenthorn, 314 Bell avenue.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Clenthorn are blind.

This was the third dog which they owned which has been poisoned since last fall.

According to Lieutenant Kennedy and Policeman Jack Levelly who investigated the poisoning, a second dog in the district, also was poisoned at the same time as the dog owned by the Clenthorns.

(8 a.m. EST) by the president of the three-man Sofia district court, Judge Konstantin Undjev.

Given 15 Years
Four other defendants were sentenced to 15 years imprisonment. They are:
Rev. Lombri Mishkov, 41, Congregationalist.
Rev. Georgi Vasev, 48 Baptist.
Rev. Harlan Popov, 41, Pentecostal.
Rev. Zdravko Bezlov, 28, Methodist.

The Protestant clergymen were convicted of having collected and given military and economic information to a "foreign power." The Sofia courtroom was jammed for the dramatic climax of the trial. The defendants stood as their sentences were read and cameramen crowded into the court to record the scene.

The top four defendants were stripped of their property in addition to the fines levied on them by the court. They also were deprived of their "political rights" for 20 years.

Lesser Sentences
Three other defendants, Rev. Yoncho Drankov, 41 Pentecostal; Rev. Ivan Spankulov, Baptist, and Rev. Zaharij Raichev, also Baptist, were sentenced to ten years imprisonment.

Drankov and Spankulov each were fined the equivalent of $500, while Raichev was fined the equivalent of $32. All were deprived of political rights for 15 years.

The Rev. Ladin Popov, who steadfastly denied he was guilty of the treason and espionage charges, received a five year sentence. He is a brother of the Rev. Harlan Popov and like him a Pentecostal churchman.

The Rev. Mitko, a Church of Christ clergyman, was sentenced to six years. He was used by the prosecution as an informer on some of the other ministers.

The remaining defendants, Rev. Angel Dinev, 40, Pentecostal, and Rev. Alexander Zahariev, 74, Methodist, were sentenced to one year's imprisonment but the sentences were suspended.

Zahariev is the father-in-law of Rev. Ivanov who received the life sentence and other severe penalties.

Rural Road Fatal Accidents Decrease

HARRISBURG, March 8.—(INS)—State police today said 23 fewer fatalities were reported in highway accidents on rural roads last month than in February, 1948.

Forty-four deaths were listed last February compared with 67 in a similar month a year ago, according to police. Sixty-seven deaths on rural highways were reported to state police in January, boosting the 1948 total to 111.

The same number of deaths occurred during the first two months of 1948 and 1949, police added.

Deaths Of The Day

Mrs. D. Wallace Houk

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Myrtilla Houk, widow of D. Wallace Houk, and lifetime resident of the Ellwood City district, will be conducted from the Bell Memorial church, Ellwood City, Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. with Rev. Joseph Pringle officiating. Interment will take place in Slippery Rock Presbyterian church cemetery.

Mrs. Houk, aged 87, died on March 5, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Belle Piper, Wiley Hill, with whom she resided. Death came after an illness of several weeks. Born in Perry township, February 9, 1865, she was a daughter of the late Andrew and Myrtilla Stuart Powell and was the last surviving member of a family of 13.

The deceased, during her lifetime was a charter member of the Bell Memorial church and a member of the Hazledell W. C. T. U.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Belle Piper, Wiley Hill; Mrs. Irene Newton, Irwin Houk, Norman Houk and Kenneth Houk, all of Ellwood City; Clifford Houk, Koppel, and Mrs. Grace Herman, Floyd Knobs, Ind. Fifteen grandchildren also survive. She was preceded in death by her husband, D. Wallace Houk, 23 years ago and by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Donaldson in 1947.

Friends are being received this evening from the Patton funeral home in Ellwood City from 7 to 9 o'clock. The body will lie in state at the church from 11 a. m. until the funeral time.

James B. Williams

James B. Williams, aged 41, of 1101 Broadway street, Farrell, died in Buhl hospital, Sharon, at 9:50 p. m., Monday, March 7, following a short illness.

Born in West Middlesex, July 7, 1907, he was a son of Harry and Nancy Smith Williams. He had resided in West Middlesex up until four years ago, when he moved to Farrell where he was a tractor driver for the Sharon Steel Corporation. During World War II, Mr. Williams was injured in maneuvers. He joined the army in March, 1941.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Cecelia Huff Williams; the following children, Twila Marie, James B. Jr., Jerry James Williams, and one stepson, Ray David, at home. The following brothers and sisters, also survive, Mrs. Elizabeth Morris, Pulaski; John and Frank Williams of West Middlesex.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. from the Cunningham funeral home in West Middlesex with Rev. George Needs officiating. Burial will take place at Haywood cemetery.

Friends will be received at the funeral home this evening, Wednesday and Thursday, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Grigorowicz Funeral
Funeral services for Karol Grigorowicz, of 1811 Pennsylvania avenue, were conducted this morning at 10 o'clock, in the Noga funeral home.

Pallbearers were: John Flak, Alex Homich, George Ambrozewicz, Jacob Tkaczuk, Carl Rabuski, and Tony Szysh.

Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

W. T. C. Mills Funeral
Funeral services for Water Tender 2-c Bernard Mills, Kurtz street, were conducted this morning at 10 o'clock from the Cunningham funeral home with Rev. Francis McCarter officiating.

Burial escort of American Legion Post 315 conducted military rites at the grave in St. Mary's cemetery with Morton Love serving as commander. Ralph Hayes was color-bearer, while Harley Shoaff acted as color-guard. Alvin Kulkin, Ned Anderson, Frank Chirumbolo and Clark Steece composed the firing squad. Joseph Hahn served as bugler.

Hilbert Reynolds, Charles Rogers, Samuel Altman, Carl Kautz, Kenneth Hill and Albert Lastoria were pallbearers.

Caminiti Funeral Time

Burial will be in St. Vitus cemetery. The body is at the DeCarbo funeral home, East Lutton at Cunningham, where friends may call anytime after 7 o'clock this evening.

Sbarro Funeral Time

Requiem mass for John P. Sbarro, of 817 Arlington avenue, will be offered Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock, in St. Vitus church.

Burial will be in St. Lucy's cemetery.

The body is at the DeCarbo funeral home, East Lutton at Cunningham, where friends may call anytime.

DRAFT OF NORTH ATLANTIC PACT SENT TO NATIONS

ward. It also spells out what would constitute an armed attack upon this area.

Area Covered

The area covered in the agreement includes territories of any and all signatories in Europe, North America, and Algeria, as well as insular possessions, ships or aircraft of the member powers.

The treaty protects itself against charges that it violates the United Nations charter by specifying that the defense agreement is based on Article 51 of the charter.

The pact also specifies that it does not affect the obligations of participating nations under their earlier treaty commitments. This is designed to protect the Anglo-Soviet and Franco-Soviet mutual alliance treaties signed soon after the end of World War II.

The treaty will come into force only after it has been ratified by all of the nations involved.

Speed with which final work on the treaty draft was pressed may prevent Denmark from having a voice in the actual wording of the document. Norway announced last week its decision to participate and has been represented in the last two sessions.

from the city schools; $1,312.45 from the coin boxes placed in strategic locations; $442.47 from lodges and organizations; $259.22 from collections taken in the movie theaters, and $412.49 from labor organizations. The balance was received from miscellaneous sources.

County Chairman William R. Hanna, of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, today expressed his thanks to all who assisted in making the campaign such a success, particularly to the school authorities and students who cooperated 100 per cent.

In Ellwood City, the amount realized was $3,795.52, which would raise the county total to $11,502.05. R. J. Shill, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce had charge of the campaign there.

the conclusion they expressed satisfaction with the progress being made.

French Ambassador Henri Bonnet, acting as spokesman for the group, said another and possibly final meeting of the group will be held late this week. In any event, he said, it is felt certain that full agreement will be reached at a meeting early next week.

Bonnet indicated that by that time a date for publication of the text will be set to allow some time for public discussion and congressional debate before the formal signing.

Police Chief Gets Conscience Money

Conscience Of Former Traffic Violator Hurts. It Is Evident

Chief of police Robert D. Hanna today received $3 from a conscience stricken person, who forwarded the money (three one dollar bills) for a traffic violation several years ago. With the money, came a letter as follows:

"Dear Sir: Enclosed find some conscience money for a traffic violation a few years ago. Sorry I just couldn't seem to get this paid."

"As a Christian, I feel these things must be gotten out of the way, for the Lord tells us in His Word to obey magistrates as they are his ministers of justice."

"The world is in an awful mess of sin. Years ago people had blue laws. We need them again. People closed shop on the Lord's day. Unnecessary work should be put aside and Sunday was the Lord's day and the police used their force to make it Lord's day."

"Places of business were not allowed to open. No baseball, etc., was permitted. Blue laws make sinners feel that way but they make Christians rejoice."

"God bless you as a minister of justice."

(Signed) One of His.

"P. S. If you feel so, you can mail this (the money) to the conscience fund in Washington, D. C., or do what is whatever is proper. I am not signing my name for you would only mail it right back. If you do find out my name please do not mail it back for it troubles me."

Chief of police Hanna said he would turn the money over to the Red Cross.

Posse Searches For Aliquippa Woman

Posse Of 50 Men Searches Woods Near Aliquippa For Woman Missing Four Days

ALIQUIPPA, Pa., March 8.—(INS)—A posse of 50 men set out today to search the woods in Hopewell township near Aliquippa for a trace of Mrs. Florence B. Vance, 53, who has been missing four days.

The posse is made up of members of Local 1211, CIO United Steel Workers, who work with the woman's husband, William. Aliquippa, state and Beaver County police are directing the search.

Mrs. Vance, the mother of a grown daughter, was last seen shortly after she boarded a bus for Ambridge where she intended to look for an apartment.

Just over a month ago Margie Bankowski, 15-year-old Ambridge school girl, was slain a few miles from Mrs. Vance's home.

will be a display by Mrs. H. W. French of her collection of international dolls, the program's theme being "International Friendship."

Troops will present their contributions to the Juliette Low World Friendship fund as a memorial to the founder of scouting, the money being used in a variety of ways to promote scouting in other countries. Girls will also receive their awards for scouting.

Mrs. N. J. McCluskey, chairman of the program committee, is being assisted by Mrs. C. M. Bonner, Mrs. P. D. Gibson, Mrs. Harry Wetlich, Mrs. Clark E. McClelland, Mrs. French and Mrs. R. J. Cartwright.

TWO FIRE CALLS RECEIVED MONDAY

Firemen were called out twice late Monday, for minor causes.

At 7:30 o'clock, a truck parked on North Jefferson street, backed down the hill, when its brakes let go, striking a light pole at the corner of Jefferson and Falls street, and knocking a wire to the ground. Firemen kept guard over the wire until employees of the Pennsylvania Power company removed it.

At 4:55 o'clock, a small fire was found in the front seat of a car parked in the alleyway in the rear of the 300 block on East Washington street. It had been caused by someone dropping a lighted cigarette on the seat. The owner could not be located.

A dentice is a kind of sea fish having a deep, compressed body and perchlike form. It has large canine teeth.

FILIBUSTER IN SENATE HOLDS UP MEASURES

Taft-Hartley law repeal bill, the housing bill, and probably rent control extension legislation. Rent control expires March 31, two days ahead of the ECA authority.

Sen. George (D) Ga., voted to report the aid bill but served notice he will expect the appropriations committee to review commodity prices and cut the actual appropriation as it finds necessary.

George had argued for a five per cent slash in ECA authorization. George said he thought he would support the authorization on the floor but wouldn't rule on the chance that he would vote for a cut there if "somebody offers an amendment that appeals to me."

The bill defended by ECA Chief Paul G. Hoffman against suggestions that it be trimmed to meet price drops, provides: One billion 150 million dollars for April, May and June of this year; four billion 280 million dollars for the fiscal year starting July 1, and 150 million dollars in forward contracting authority.

District Progress
Shown By Report
Of Power Company

Thirty-Two New Industries Established In District During Past Year

Annual report of Pennsylvania Power company, mailed yesterday to company stockholders and employees, summarizes the events of a year which brought increased benefits to customers, employees and stockholders. Customers bought more electricity at a lower average price, employees received higher wage rates and the net income was increased over the previous year.

The report, attractively illustrated with photographs and charts, contains a brief letter from President W. H. Sammis which states concisely the most important results of the year's operations. According to the letter, "Electric sales amounted to 568,499,769 kilowatt hours, up 9 per cent from 1947. Gross revenues totaled $9,016,346, an increase of 7.6 per cent."

Charts showing residential use and price of electricity disclose the progress made by the company during the past 10 years in increasing use and reducing the price of residential service. The company's record compares favorably with similar data for the state and nation. Likewise charts on farm electrification indicate that from the standpoint of farms served and farm electric use the local company's record exceeds the national average by a substantial percentage.

Thirty-Two New Industries
New customers added during the year totaled 2,689 or 4.4 per cent more than at the end of 1947. Industrial power sales exceeded for the first time those of the peak year—1944. Construction expenses amounted to $2,400,892. Of the 597 employees of the company 21.8 per cent have service records of 20 years or more.

Particularly interesting to local citizens is the section on area development. "Over 40 per cent of America's iron and steel production," the report states, "is located within 50 miles of the area served by the company. Thus local fabricators have many important sources of steel within short haulage distance. During 1948 32 new industries were established in the area, which are expected to employ more than 2,000 people." The report also includes financial statements of the company, certified by an independent firm of accountants.

Using High Beam On Auto Blamed As One Of Biggest Traffic Hazards

PHILADELPHIA, March 8. —(INS)—Carelessness in using the high beam on an automobile, was recently blamed as one of the biggest hazards in highway driving. The Keystone Automobile club has warned drivers that the unnecessary headlight is but a blinding glare to approaching traffic. The club further warned motorists that deliberate refusal to drop to a dimmer light is not only a sign of discourtesy but also dangerous for all concerned. It added that the matter is entirely up to the driver, since enforcement of laws requiring the use of lower beams, is difficult.

Seen By Senator*Demands Government Act To Protect Itself From Agents Of Certain Powers

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(INS)—Sen. O'Connor (D Md., declared Monday that the United States "must look for increasing and unprecedented espionage" by agents of "certain foreign governments in the United Nations." O'Connor made the statement in demanding that the government act immediately to make sure that diplomatic immunity is not granted to U. N. employees who might be engaged in spying in this country. He proposed that the Senate by resolution voice its concern over the "threat to our national security by unrestricted activities of foreign agents."

O'Connor cited the arrest of a Russian U. N. attache and of a Justice department girl employee on espionage charges Saturday.

Some Are "Hostile"
The senator said that "certain foreign governments" in the United Nations are "hostile" to the United States and everything for which it stands. He said: "We must look for increasing and unprecedented espionage on their part. Every person they send among us is a potential spy. Many of their representatives, both here and in Canada, have records of subversive activities in which top officials as well as subordinates are known to have participated."

O'Connor said that the U. S. should use "every possible means to confine the actions of any suspect foreign representatives strictly within those U. N. functions for the performance of which they are admitted to this country." He continued: "To do otherwise is openly to invite danger, and possible destruction. They are not entitled to unrestricted diplomatic immunity." O'Connor's resolution would request the Justice and State departments to "take precautionary measures" by agreement with organizations like UN to govern the entry, conduct, etc., of foreign representatives.

EASIER CREDIT TERMS

Order of the Federal Reserve Board relaxing restrictions on installment buying is expected to have an inflationary effect. If consumers are in the mood, they will find it easier to go into debt for durable goods than it has been in recent months. They will be able to buy with smaller down payments in many instances, and they will have a longer period in which to pay.

This step in easing credits is an admission that the country has been having more deflation than the Federal Reserve Board bargained for when it imposed the restrictions—or at least more than it now finds comfortable. In the circumstances, it is pertinent to ask whether Congress should give the President the formidable array of economic controls he wants. Surely the argument that they are needed to control inflation has been deflated.

Many of the controls sought would apply to materials going into consumers' durable goods—the type of goods that is expected to move faster under the new order. Steel is an example. The President has asked for authority to allocate steel. He has gone further and asked for power to expand steel-producing facilities, by putting the government in the steel business if need be, on the ground that output may be inadequate.

Whether the board has acted wisely it is impossible to say at this stage. But it has tacitly admitted that inflation is no longer the threat it was only a few months ago.

SUCCESSOR TO CLAY

For many months it has been common knowledge that Gen. Lucius D. Clay wants to shake the dust of Berlin from his heels and bow out as American military governor in Germany. Now the general has again indicated his desire to get out of harness. His chiefs, both civilian and military, can hardly overlook his wishes again.

So, in all likelihood, the next few months will see some changes in top military government posts in Germany. Dispatches from Berlin speculate that the general's retirement would probably be followed by a wave of resignations among his top advisers in the military government there.

Probably in no other spot is the caliber of the chief American representative of such vital importance. General Clay, as top dog in occupied Germany, formulated and implemented policies of a far reaching character. The advances western Germany has made along the road to self-government and a stabilized economy can be traced directly to the general's single-mindedness, capacity for work, and refusal to duck the broad responsibilities his post carries with it.

It can only be hoped that at this critical point in the cold war, the President makes his choice solely on the basis of fitness to implement American policies.

A HAPPY TRADITION

In the early days it was a common sight to see neighbors band together to help each other. Barns were built, crops harvested, land cleared and numerous other heavy tasks were accomplished in a few hours instead of weeks or months. It was done in an atmosphere of spontaneous fun. The neighbors simply dropped in for a raising bee, a husking bee, or whatever the occasion required, with their wagons loaded with food.

These work parties were a necessity in pioneer America. But it is cheering to note that this tradition is still with us in this machine age. A recent news item tells of a service station operator in a small Minnesota community who had an unusual run of bad luck. His competitors decided to help him out. They closed their stations one Sunday and took over the job of manning his cash register and pumps to handle the sudden rush of business. It was necessary for the local constable to direct traffic. Many people refused change, and the supplier, which was one of the leading oil companies, furnished gas at cost. When the day was over the station operator was considerably better off financially and he had gained a new appreciation of his friends and neighbors.

If instances like this could occur more often half the seemingly insoluble problems of the country would disappear.

Some men who shout when they talk do it to drown out the voice of their conscience.

It is hard to settle down during inflation, but during deflation it would be harder to settle up.

Money isn't everything. When you get through paying your taxes you find it is hardly anything.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The "Molotov mystery"—that highly publicized international drama that may prove to be merely another chapter in Soviet Russia's determined attempt to baffle and confuse the world—remained the focal point of international attention today.

It has developed thus far only one major conclusion: Premier Marshal Josef Stalin is still the sole boss at the Kremlin and he stands on ceremony or in need of explanation to no one.

The avalanche of speculation that followed the sudden shift in personalities at the Soviet foreign office brought to the surface perhaps the most curious and contradictory set of explanations in recent history.

Being Penalized?

Some quarters saw Vlashev M. Molotov being penalized for a long series of mistakes responsible for the east-west "cold war" which culminated in a major Soviet setback with Norway's decision to join the north Atlantic defense pact.

Others saw him elevated to a new position in the rarified Kremlin air as personal foreign policy advisor to Stalin, possibly even his hand-picked choice as successor who from now on is to be schooled at first hand in the immensely intricate job of running the Russian colossus.

All "explanations" overlook the puzzling fact that Andrei V. Vishinsky, Molotov's successor, was placed in a rather bad light only a few weeks before the Kremlin shakeup occurred.

The occasion was Vishinsky's sudden assignment to Prague following the arrest of between 400 and 600 Czechoslovakian army officers charged with conspiring against the government of Communist President Klement Gottwald.

Shrouded In Secrecy

That visit, as well as the events which preceded it and those which ensued, have been shrouded in a great deal of secrecy.

In the sequence, however, seems to be that Gottwald and his own prime minister, Antonin Zapotovsky, differed on the extent to which Czechoslovakia was to be under direct orders from the Kremlin. This reported split in the higher ranks gave anti-communist military elements a chance to voice their opposition.

Vishinsky hurried to Prague, presumably to bring the situation into line and was next reported at the one-time aristocratic health spa of Karlsbad.

An official Prague announce-

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

If I were ten years younger and had the ambition I had ten years ago, I would go into a business which I think could be made into a most lucrative venture.

It would be lucrative because there is a great need for it and because I don't know of any competitor.

It is the business of unremodeling.

Now please don't look into the dictionary for the word unremodeling. You won't find it. I just coined it, and the next edition of the Brandeis International Dictionary of Non-Dictionary Words won't be out for a long time yet.

Unremodeling means remodeling in reverse; bringing things back where they used to be when they were what they are supposed to be.

Don't think that any kid can go into the unremodeling business and make a success of it.

It takes years and years of experience to be a good unremodeler.

Because, before you can decide what is good and sensible you must first learn, by personal experience, what is bad and foolish.

Let us take a house, for instance. Everybody wants a house of his own sooner or later, and thousands of people are remodeling old houses to give them all the modern conveniences without which life is supposed to be unlivable nowadays.

On the other hand, would take a modern house that has all the latest gadgets in it and unremodel it into the semblance of a home.

I would take out all the chromium and the aluminum and the plastic tiles and the neon lights and unremodel it into a place when you can tell your children about Alice in Wonderland and Little Snow White and all those things of yore, without having the kids call you and old fuddy-duddy who doesn't know the first thing about radar and atom bombs.

I would unremodel the place into something where you can dream and wish and remember.

I wouldn't go so far as to reinstall the outhouses and kerosene lamps. But I would make it the kind of home where if the electricity went off for a while you wouldn't be sitting in a complete void.

There are hundreds of other things into which I would unremodel the modern home, but space does not permit to go into them.

I would unremodel the modern automobile into something that makes driving safe and enjoyable as it used to be, that would let you see the scenery rather than just smell it in whizzing by.

I would unremodel a lot of females I know and take the red off their fingernails and toenails, scrape the smear off their cheeks, undye their hair to its natural color, and otherwise make them females again.

I would unremodel all the things that are going on in the world today into the things that were going on in the world in 1948.

I would unremodel all the things that are going on in the world today into the things that were going on in the world in 1948.

ment, later denied but accepted at its face value at the time, inferred that Vishinsky had incurred a nervous breakdown and was "unable to concentrate" on national affairs.

The idea seemed to be at the time that Vishinsky had run into insuperable obstacles in his attempts to smooth out the Czechoslovak government picture. The brief announcement painted the former purge trial prosecutor as a bewildered, helpless man and there would have been no surprise if it had been followed by word that he had bowed out of public life entirely.

Raised To New Eminence

But instead of that, the man whose vetoes at U. N. security council deliberations became synonymous with the obstructionist tactics of Russia was raised to new eminence and Moscow again confronted the world with its traditional inscrutability.

One of the most important aspects of the affair that still awaits development is the fact that Molotov remains a member of the all-powerful politburo, which Vishinsky is not and never has been.

It is a recognized fact that at the United Nations, in big four deliberations and elsewhere, Molotov never spoke with his own voice but with that of the small ruling clique which with Stalin as guide and taskmaster decided the policies of the USSR.

This alone accounted for much of the initial speculation to the effect that Molotov's change in status might well presage a major shift in Soviet tactics, either an all-out intensification of the "cold war" or even more strenuous "peace offensive" against the west.

In the final analysis, the whole business seems to swing back to that day many years ago when Winston Churchill characterized the Soviets and their policies as "middle in an enigma." The more "explanations" offered the more confusing does the situation become.

The World and the Mud Puddles

CONCERNING TAXES

President Truman in vetoing the Republican tax bill passed by the "worst" Eightieth Congress and throughout his campaign speeches, condemned this bill as vicious. The logical presumption is that he will demand its repeal and the substitution of a new bill.

In this connection it is pertinent to remark that one of the most enthusiastically acclaimed provisions of the Republican bill was the application of the "community property" idea on a national scale.

Prior to that change, there had been rank injustices in taxation. As an example, it is cited that a citizen of Ohio with an income of Twenty-five Thousands Dollars a year had to pay Two Thousand Two Hundred Seventy-eight Dollars more in income taxes than a citizen earning the same amount in Texas or California. The Republican measure wipe out this discrimination.

Will This Be Included

Now the question arises as to whether Mr. Truman, having so bitterly condemned the Republican law, will include in his demand for new legislation the abolition of this community property division. Being essentially politically minded, it is doubtful if the president would hazard the storm of public disapproval which would greet such a demand. In any case, it seems improbable that the new Democratic Congress, which has some political intuition, would do away with the community property provision which means so much to millions of taxpayers throughout the nation.

State Police Say:

"Children should be seen but not heard" is the modern adaptation of an old saying. Children are being educated to obey traffic laws and do obey them when they think about it. But we grown-ups must consider that children are impulsive and forget easier. It is up to us to remember when they forget. Watch out for them constantly at school zones and playgrounds, and drive as though every child was YOUR child.

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Handicap Of Small Business

WASHINGTON, March 8.—In the long days and nights of waiting and boredom, in the tense intervals between combat, a lot of young men in the last war thought about what they wanted to do when they got back home. Many dreamed about starting a little business that might become a good size business. They were tired of being ordered around, they wanted to be their own boss.

One who came back with that dream was Lewis C. Burwell, Jr., of Charlotte, N. C. He had a very definite idea of the business he wanted to start.

Having been a combat pilot for most of the war—ten combat citations and three distinguished flying crosses—he wanted to stay in aviation. His idea was for an airline that would take tourists on all-expense excursion trips.

Burwell formed Resort Airlines. Stock was sold, most of it to veterans, some of it to wealthy men who thought well of the proposal. Working intensively, the young promoter got operating safety certificates from the United States, Canada and Mexico and most of the Caribbean and Central American countries.

It was soon apparent the idea would take hold with the public. In the summer, resort airlines carried parties to the American west and the Canadian northwest. In the winter, the tours were to the Caribbean and Central America.

Most of Burwell's customers were people who had never flown before or who had never taken a long trip. They liked having everything done for them—hotel reservations, air schedules, the whole thing wrapped up in one package at reasonable cost.

Before long, Resort Airlines had three DC-4s and seven DC-3s. It was a going concern. The dream seemed to have come true.

Then Burwell began to have trouble with the Civil Aeronautics Board. The temporary operating authority issued by the CAB was modified. A long series of negotiations with the tourist industry, studies, hearings, briefs and, finally, a report by the trial examiner cost the company approximately $150,000.

Certificate Recommended

After eight months, a trial examiner recommended a certificate of public convenience and necessity for Resort. Exceptions were filed, including the protests of the big scheduled airlines. Their spokesmen argued that Resort was taking business they would otherwise have.

Burwell's reply is that most of the passengers are new to travel and they would not be likely to make their own reservations and take themselves from place to place. Having once made an all-expense conducted tour, however, they are far more liable to go again on their own.

In spite of the constant struggle with government red tape, Burwell could point to the fact that his line had flown 25,000,000 passenger-miles without an accident of any sort. He could also point out that Resort had voluntarily adopted the same safety standards as the big lines, and in some instances the requirements were higher.

Real Example

If ever there was an example of small business, of enterprise, of ingenuity, of hard work, this seems to me to be it. Yet now Resort, along with all other unscheduled lines—most of them operated by veterans—are shut down by a CAB order.

The other day the CAB awarded the scheduled lines an additional $8,000,000 in subsidy. The unscheduled lines get no subsidy and have never asked for one.

The big lines claim, of course, that the little fellows want to skim off the cream and take no responsibility for regularly operated routes. It is a highly significant fact that not one new domestic trunk line carrier has been licensed since congress passed the air regulation act in 1938.

Cut Down Competition

The drive originating with the big lines is to cut down competition. The small lines are trying to

That Masquerading Woman

By PAUL GALLICO

There was an odd little item out of Denver, Colorado, the other day. A man and his daughter got into an argument in a bar room. The daughter ran out into the street, hailed a passing gendarme and told "father's" secret, namely that father wasn't father at all, but mother. The law stepped in and tossed both of them into the squeezer for investigation.

While there, the man-woman, Mrs. Billie Morrison, said that she had masqueraded as a man for 20 years because—"It's easier to get along in the world as a man." It is this point that I would like to debate with you for about 800 words or so if you wouldn't mind.

No Desire To Alter Lot

Not that I have ever cherished the slightest desire to alter my lot. I cannot ever recall wishing that I had been born a woman. In the first place, I'd have looked pretty funny. Over six feet tall, a big nose, a bigger mouth and horn-rimmed glasses. The perfect wall flower. But I would go so far as to say that had I been a woman I would not have cared to exchange and become a man. It may be, as they say, a man's world, but show me evidence that the girls don't do all right.

And anyway, what do they want? A lady can crop her hair and don a pair of pants but she can never escape her biology. Time was, and I can remember it, when women were second-class citizens. They weren't allowed to vote.

Name of Emmeline Pankhurst and the Suffragettes mean anything to you? Gee, I remember the hullabaloo. "Votes for Women!" She really raised old Ned in Merrie England. Then it spread over here. They said give the women the vote and everything would be different. No more war, no more bum politicians. There'd be a great new world.

So They Got The Vote

So they got the vote. And look at your darned world now. Is it any better? Did it cut out war, taxes, windy politics, exploitation and abuses? What have the girls done with the vote that they didn't do before they had it by influencing daddy? I'm not saying, I'm just asking, and I ain't mad at anybody and especially not the ladies.

We have had a lady in the president's cabinet, there are ladies in Congress and in the Senate. It is true they are outnumbered vastly by the male members in government, but I would say that that is chiefly because fewer girls have gone into politics and made it a career. We may even see a lady Vice President some time, or perhaps President, and I have already written that this would neither shock nor distress me. The opportunities are there.

We have business women, female executives of large corporations, female doctors, lawyers and educators. What am I getting so excited about? All I want to say anyway is that by and large most of the girls seem to want to remain just girls, have some guy bring them candy and flowers, take them out, coax them to marry them, collaborate with them on raising a family and just be women. And what is bad about that?

Wait 'Till Mail Comes In

Oh, I'll find out what's bad about that, all right. Wait until my mail from the feminine circulation begins to come in. They'll tell me what's wrong with me, all right. They'll tell me they aren't out after husbands, they want jobs, careers and to be the equals of men. It's that last that I just can't do anything about.

You can get me to admit that a girl doesn't have as easy a time in the business world as does a man. Her pay is lower in many cases and when she starts to fight her way to the top the competition becomes fierce and keen. Men are jealous. They don't like the idea of women executives. Also they are a little scared of them. Facing a woman executive throws a man all out of kilter. He can't use any of the little tricks or techniques that work on other men. His whole approach is broken up. He starts being conscious of his hands in his ears and his fingernails.

What beats me is how any woman, understanding men, seeing through them, pushing them around with her little finger, having them at her beck and call, knowing them for the colossal, childish, egotistical hoobs they are, could ever want to be one.

Rotarians Get Tips On How To Write Letters

Interesting Talkie Presented Before Club At Luncheon Meeting Monday

New Castle Rotary club members saw an interesting talkie picture at their noon luncheon meeting, Monday, which will no doubt help many of them in their business correspondence.

The picture, secured through the interest of Tom Foley, gave some helpful tips on writing letters, the idea being to make letters, particularly business letters, more intimate and natural, rather than the old-style stereotyped kind.

A meeting of the executive committee followed the regular luncheon program.

Little Stresses Need For Athletes To Study In School

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa., March 8.—(INS)—High school and college athletes had a warning today from teacher Lou Little, Columbia football mentor, to bend most of their efforts toward their studies.

In an address at a banquet honoring St. Matthew's High school football team, Little declared: "The parade will pass you by if you don't take advantage of academics these days. Twenty-five or 35 years ago we thought only in terms of football, baseball or other competitive activities, but that was bad and false."

Flash Floods Damage California Homes

More Than Score Of Families Evacuated In Bakersfield Area

BAKERSFIELD, Calif., March 8.—(INS)—More than a score of families were evacuated Monday as flash floods swept the Bakersfield area, damaging homes and washing out roads.

Highway travel between Bakersfield and Mojave was halted by the flood waters generated by rains of cloudburst proportions. Sheriff's deputies and other officials went from house to house, routing residents with flashlights to warn them of the flood waters. Many residents were taken to waiting automobiles to aid their speedy evacuation.

SUFFERS INJURY
Joseph Wotowicz, 30, of 842 Vogan avenue was injured at the J. R. Rick company Monday at 11:30 a. m., while working on the roof of a car. In some manner the pliers slipped and cut the index and second fingers of his right hand. He was discharged from the New Castle hospital after receiving treatment.

A baby was born every eight seconds in the United States during 1947—3,900,000 in all.

Canadian Offers Deal To Russia

Would Exchange Communist Sam Carr For Josef Cardinal Mindszenty

MONTREAL, March 8.—(INS)—Alderman Romeo Desormiers wants to make a deal with Russia to exchange Sam Carr, alleged communist spy ringleader in Canada, for Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, imprisoned Hungarian prelate. Desormiers asked the Montreal council yesterday to petition the Canadian minister of justice to insist upon the maximum penalty for Carr, if convicted, and then engineer a deal with Moscow.

Carr was recently arrested in New York and returned to Ottawa for trial.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

preferably unpaired, will drop in at our home often.

Eat With Family

Occasionally we would like one or a few of them at a time to stay and eat with the family, provided it were planned in advance and would not be a hardship on the mother, and the son and daughter would share in the extra work entailed. Wonderful when it can be plain, simple hospitality!

Some youths today, even from so-called good homes are so rowdyish that they seriously endanger the home furnishings. Your own son or daughter who has learned at home sufficient self-control and care of property may, if tactful, be able to tame his pals a bit.

We best prepare our home as a welcome meeting place for teenagers while our children are pretty young. Ideally, from the time the child walk well his playmates come to his home, one or so at a time at first, more later. Guiding your own child and his playmates then at non-running fun indoors, you prepare all of them to be desirable members of group gatherings in your home when they are older. Though the same children who are close pals at five, eight or ten won't continue to be pals in their teens, many of them may. Anyway, your own child should have acquired gradually some desirable standards for host or guest in a group.

Not only does this home gathering of your child's pals promote his satisfaction and moral safety but it also enables him to grow socially, so that he won't have to be timid, lonely person. My bulletins, "The Lonely, Timid Youth," and "Your Child and His Playmates" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

Dr. Vernon Nash Will Speak Here

Vice President Of United World Federalists To Speak On Friday Night

Dr. Vernon Nash, well known author, lecturer, and national Vice-President of the United World Federalists will speak on "Prospects for a Governed World" at the World Government Rally on March 11 at the First Methodist church, 102 North Jefferson street, at 8 p. m.

The New Castle Ministerial Association and the New Castle Chapter of the United World Federalists are jointly sponsoring the rally.

Dr. Nash, a Rhodes Scholar, founded the first school of journalism in Asia at Yenching University, Peiping China. He was visiting professor of journalism at the University of Missouri in 1932. In 1938 he helped draft the pamphlet "The Alternative of International Anarchy" published by the Federal Council of Churches and the Foreign Missions Conference.

Dr. Nash is a pioneer in urging that world peace is a by-product of responsible government. He is an advocate of a world federal government brought about through the gradual change of the structure of the United Nations.

The public is invited to attend the rally. There will be no admission charge.

Mexican Communist Crackdown Planned

MEXICO CITY, March 8.—(INS)—An authoritative source in Mexico City said today a government crackdown on Mexican communists is imminent.

Government action is expected to follow statements by Mexican communists echoing French, Italian and other communist leaders that their first loyalty is to Moscow.

The Mexican government reportedly will act to remove all communists from any position in the administration.

Senior Extension Club Is Planning Full Schedule

Panel Discussion Of Farm Living Is Set For March 16, It Is Announced

Organized a year ago with a membership of 80 young men and women, the Lawrence County Senior Extension club is planning a full schedule of activities for 1949, including a panel discussion of farm living for March 16, according to Paul Fox, Enon Valley, the president.

Panel members are Leland McCullough, New Galilee, R. D.; Ruth Johnson, New Castle, R. D.; Marjorie McAnlis, New Galilee, R. D.; Reed Miller, Edinburg, R. D.; Paul Fox, and Mrs. Clarence Steese, Lowellville, O., R. D.

Reed Miller, Edinburg, O., R. D., vice president, is chairman of program planning. Officers for 1949 were installed at the club's first annual banquet Friday night, February 25, at Big Beaver Grange hall, near New Galilee.

Officers, in addition to Fox and Miller, include Eleanor Wilson, Wampum, secretary-treasurer, and Homer Matthews, Edinburg, R. D., reporter.

Composed of older farm youths and companion organization to 4-H, senior extension is taking an active interest in the observance of National 4-H Club Week, March 5 to 13. Many of its members formerly were in 4-H club work.

A part of Agricultural Extension, as is 4-H, Senior Extension will have assistance of the county extension staff, John H. Holbert, assistant county agent, helped organize the club and has been working closely with it.

Dr. J. D. Fletcher Starts Practice

Joseph D. Fletcher of 1813 Delaware avenue received word late last week that he had successfully passed the Pennsylvania state examination for chiropractors and is now licensed to practice in this state.

Dr. Fletcher attended New Castle Senior High school and was graduated from Castle Heights Military academy. He prepared for a career in chiropractic at Western Reserve and the Ohio College of Chiropractic, from which he was recently graduated with a doctor's degree in surgical chiropractic.

The new doctor will be associated with his father, Dr. T. J. Fletcher, with offices in the Temple building, North street.

St. Nicholas Church Honors Rev. Fr. Kolcun

On Sunday, immediately after the divine liturgy, the church members and friends gathered in the church auditorium of the St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church where a pre-lenten and also a welcoming banquet was held in honor of Rev. Fr. Stephen J. Kolcun, the new priest of the church.

During the course of the banquet a corsage of red roses and baby breath was presented to Mrs. Margaret Kolcun, wife of Fr. Kolcun, by Theresa Hayducak and a large beautifully decorated cake with "Welcome to St. Nicholas" to Fr. Kolcun.

Nicholas Solomen, a church trustee, acted as toastmaster of the banquet, during which time he presented as speakers Joseph Noga, a well-known citizen of New Castle, and Fr. Kolcun.

Among those present as guests were Frank Noga, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kolcun and Miss Helen Kolcun of Clairton, Pa., parents and sister of Fr. Kolcun, and members of the St. John the Baptist Orthodox Greek Catholic church of Sharon.

Those serving on the committee were John Vargo, junior president of the church, Harry Yankura, John Teplica, Michael Hayducak and John Fabian.

Assisting in the preparation of the delicious meal and serving were Mrs. George Kovach, Miss Ann Dutko, Mrs. John Teplica, Miss Pauline Yankura, Miss Mary Teplica, Mrs. John Pazzo, Mrs. John Knight, Miss Ann Kovach, Mrs. George Kalifut, Miss Helen Soloninka, Mrs. John Lukas and Miss Ann Mutsko.

Movies of the banquet were taken by Nicholas Uram, a church trustee.

Army Signal Corps Has 86th Birthday

Dates Back To 1863 When President Lincoln Authorized Its Organization

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—The Signal corps of the United States Army is observing its 86th anniversary. It's official history dates from March 3, 1863, when President Lincoln approved a congressional enactment authorizing its organization.

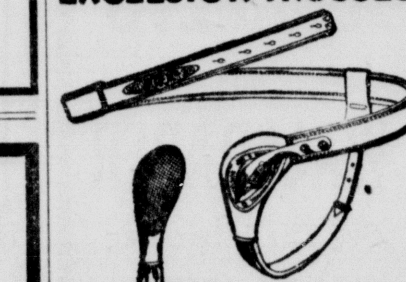

The unofficial history of the Signal corps is several years older, however, and goes back to the time when Maj. Albert J. Myer, an army surgeon, devised a system of sign language for the deaf. Intrigued by the sign language possibilities, he soon developed a semaphore signal system, using vari-colored flags. The army adopted this new system of signaling in 1859, on the recommendation of a board of officers headed by Col. Robert E. Lee.

Major Myer was named the army signal officers and its advanced to the rank of brigadier-general. The name of the father of the Signal corps is perpetuated in the headquarters army post—Fort Myers—adjoining the nation's capital.

THE 1949 CADILLAC, powered by its great new V-type, high-compression engine—knows no counterpart for over-all brilliance of performance.

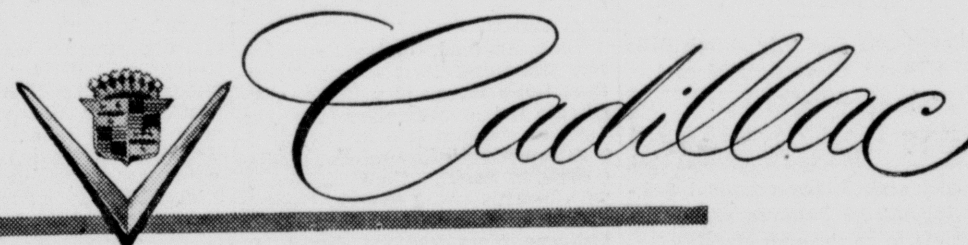

From the standpoint of ability, smoothness and quickness of acceleration—it is a never-ending challenge to the imagination. Yet, in the hands of the person at its wheel, the 1949 Cadillac is as docile as a kitten!

Never before has a car so dynamic been under such certain and easy control. The big, powerful hydraulic brakes are completely dominant—yet they are as soft to the pedal as sponge rubber. A touch from the faintest foot—and the car settles down to a quick and easy stop. A touch on the accelerator, and it moves quickly into any position its driver wishes to occupy. The big, slender steering wheel is feather-light in the hand—and quick and positive in its action.

Yes, the driver is boss in a Cadillac—and his word is unquestioned!

It's a great thrill to take command of such a car—as hundreds are learning every day. Why not come in and see for yourself? Regardless of the price class from which you expect your next car to come, you ought to be familiar with Cadillac. It is the final yardstick for measuring motor cars.

Rota Society Has Initial Meeting

Young Married Women Of Holy Trinity National Catholic Church Organized

At the Holy Trinity National Catholic church, South Jefferson at Miller avenue, a new organization, the Rota society, has been organized by the Rev. Fr. E. C. Kuzminski.

The first meeting took place Sunday afternoon, in the church auditorium, when 30 young married women were present.

Fr. Kuzminski addressed the ladies, and outlined the purpose of the society, named, to assemble all young married women of the Holy Trinity church, for better understanding of mutual ideas, pertaining to the development of the individual, exchanging of ideas, and cooperating for the betterment and progress of Holy Trinity church.

Green County Miner Awaits Murder Trial

WAYNESBURG, Pa., March 9.—(INS)—Coal miner Michael P. Andrenok awaited trial today on a charge of murder in connection with the death of his wife, Anna, last Feb. 8.

A grand jury indicted the 39-year-old mines in Waynesburg on Monday. The state contends Andrenok fatally shot his wife with a .32-caliber pistol at their home in Penn Pitt, a Greene county mining patch.

Former Local Youth On Non-Stop Flight

First Lieut. Arthur M. Neal, one of the men that took part in the U. S. air force bomber round the world history making flight last week, is a former New Castle boy, according to information furnished The News through relatives and friends in the city and county.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal, parents of the young man who aided in the history making event, resided in Mahoningtown, Mrs. Neal being the former Clara Sample. The father of the young man at one time served as agent for the Pennsylvania railroad at Wampum but the family resided in Koppel at the time.

The parents of the young flyer reside in Grass Valley, Calif., while young Neal and his wife and child reside at Tucson, Ariz. An aunt, Mrs. Jane Chambers, resides on Grant street. The older Neals are personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall of Wampum.

Resident's Aunt Taken By Death

Word has been received by Mrs. Bessie Walls of 818 West North street of the death of her aunt, Mrs. Eliza Jane Pride of McKeesport, Pa., on Sunday morning in her home. She was 94 years of age and well known here.

Mrs. Pride had resided in McKeesport for 70 years and was a member of St. Paul's A. M. E. church, and was an honorary member of E. J. Pride Missionary society. She instituted the first "women's day", which is observed annually in the A. M. E. churches.

Mrs. Pride was born in Monongahela, Pa., and was the oldest living resident of her community for some time. She was very highly respected, having a wide circle of friends.

Surviving are her daughter Grace and a brother, Sylvester W. Grinage; one granddaughter and two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the St. Paul's A. M. E. church, McKeesport, Pa.

State Wide Road Block Foreseen As Result Of County Road Block

Road Block Foreseen To Catch Criminals And Traffic Law Violators

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—(INS)—A state-wide road-block to catch criminals and traffic law violators was foreseen following the success of a county-wide road-block in Allegheny county.

Police Chief Chris H. Keisling of nearby Carnegie, head of the Western Pennsylvania Chief of Police Association, is among the sponsors of the plan.

He said it will be designed to keep transient criminals out of the state, to check on stolen cars and cars carrying contraband, and to curb speeding and other traffic code violations.

Projected Monthly
The police official urged that the road-block be thrown up monthly at unscheduled times.

No major criminals were caught in the recent roadblock in Allegheny county, but police reported there were numerous arrests for minor violations.

Chief Keisling said: "If we do nothing but eliminate speeding, we'll be repaid for our efforts in establishing the road-block."

Some 500 officers participated in the plan in Allegheny county. Chief Keisling said Washington, Greene, Fayette and Westmoreland counties will join the program by this summer.

Steel Operations At Record Peak

NEW YORK, March 8.—(INS)—The American Iron and Steel Institute announced today that steel operations this week will be at a new record peak.

It placed production at 101.4 per cent of ingot capacity, calculated to produce 1,869,300 tons.

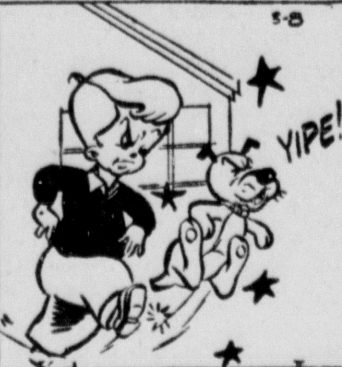

This tops the record 101.1 per cent of capacity registered in the week of January 24.

A week ago, the rate was 100% per cent of capacity.

The institute said that this will be the eighth successive week of operations at or above theoretical capacity.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

Pets And Cruelty

"I just can't let him have a puppy or any other pet. He's so cruel to them."

A statement such as that has been made by many a parent who has watched his young hopeful maul a pet animal. Children are sometimes rather severely punished for being "cruel." They are told that if they don't treat their pets more nicely, that they can't keep them. The horror in a parent's voice when a child is seen maltreating an animal often brings to the child the idea that he is a pretty terrible sort of person.

Are children really cruel? Do they deliberately torture animals just to see them squirm?

Very seldom is our answer. Sometimes when youngsters feel unloved and unwanted, themselves, or when they have been figuratively pushed around by grown-ups or other children, they may "take it out" on helpless animals. In such cases, the situation that causes the unwanted behavior should be cleared up. Punishment should not be given to the child.

Usually, however, what seems to be cruelty is only ignorance. The Cat's tail is a handy thing. The puppy is pinched or hit because he makes such an interesting noise when this happens.

Children are slow to realize that they are hurting the animal. Our job as parents is to help them get fun and satisfaction out of handling their pets in the right way. Patient care in showing the way of holding a pet properly and of taking care of its needs soon will result in eliminating what we wrongly call "cruelty."

Flood Wants Commies Outlawed In U.S. Now

Should Be Outlawed Because Of 'Traitorous Statements' Of Leads

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(INS)—Rep. Flood (D) Pa., declared Monday that Congress should outlaw the Communist party in the United States because of the "recent traitorous statements" of its leaders.

Flood made the statement as he testified before a House Labor subcommittee at the opening of hearings on repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law, including its provision requiring non-Communist affidavits of union officials.

The congressman, who favors repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, declared that Congress should proceed directly against Communists instead of casting aspersions on the Americanism of loyal union leaders through the affidavit requirement. Flood said that he once doubted the advisability of outlawing the Communist party, but that he would vote to outlaw the Communist party now that its leaders have shown their colors and made clear their purpose to overthrow the government by force and violence.

Senate Committee Reports Out Bill For New Gas Tax

HARRISBURG, March 8.—(INS)—The administration on Monday afternoon won a major battle in the Senate Highways committee with a 21-1 vote to report to the floor for consideration legislation proposing a penny-a-gallon increase in gasoline taxes.

The lone vote cast against the controversial measure was filed by Senate Minority Leader John H. Dent of Westmoreland, according to Chairman John G. Snowden, (R) Lycoming.

Vice-Chairman George N. Wade (R) Cumberland who bitterly assailed Gov. James H. Duff's tax program Saturday apparently voted for the levy inasmuch as the full membership was on deck and the only negative vote—according to Snowden—was Dent's.

a Very Busy Year in 1948

Here are some highlights from our annual report for 1948 which we have just mailed to our stockholders and employees. You as a customer may also be interested in this record of a year of progress in serving the people of this area. If you want a copy of the complete report, we will be glad to send it to you. Write or call our division office in New Castle, Sharon or Greenville.

Residential Use Greater

Sales of electricity to residential customers of Pennsylvania Power Company were 15% higher in 1948 than they were in 1947 and the average annual use per customer rose 10.4% from 1,726 to 1,905 kilowatt hours. The average annual use has increased 108% in the last 10 years.

Many Miles of Line Added

The Company's construction program in 1948 was one of the heaviest in its history. Transmission line improvements included the construction of 9 miles of 24,000 and 69,000-volt lines. New distribution lines totaled 102 miles.

Farm Electrification Gains

The use of electricity by the Company's farm customers continued its growth of past years, increasing from an annual average of 2,941 kilowatt hours in 1947 to 3,308 in 1948. More than 96% of the farms located in our area have electric service.

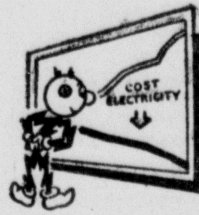

Employee Relations

The Company had 597 employees on December 31, 1948. One hundred and thirty, or 21.8%, have service records of twenty years or more and 45.7% have been with us ten or more years. Total wages paid were $1,907,802.

PENNSYLVANIA POWER COMPANY

A Business-Managed, Tax-Paying Industry

Living Costs UP . . . Price of Electricity Down

The price of electricity to the Company's residential customers has come down steadily for years in contrast to the rising cost of living. This trend continued last year, the average price dropping from 2.95c per kilowatt hour in 1947 to 2.77c in 1948.

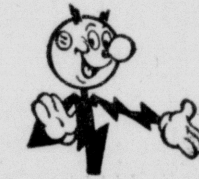

Area's Industrial Outlook Bright

During 1948, 32 new industries were established in the area, which are expected to employ more than 2,000 people. Sales to industrial power customers were 383,825,643 kilowatt hours, 6.8% higher than in 1947.

Tax Increase 17%

Total charges for taxes amounted to $1,440,587 or 17% over $1,231,187 in 1947. Taxes took 16c of the 1948 revenue dollar, compared with 14.7c in 1947. Thus a large part of your electric bill goes to support Federal, state and local government.

Expansion Plans

A new 85,000-kilowatt generating unit has been ordered for installation at the New Castle Plant. This unit is expected to be in operation late in 1951, and will about double the present capacity of the plant.

Coordinator Named To Conduct Service For Palsy Victims

Expanded Service To Help 12,000 Palsy Victims Gets Coordinator

HARRISBURG, March 8.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Society for Crippled Children and Adults has appointed a cerebral palsy coordinator to conduct an expanded service for helping 12,000 persons suffering various types of palsy.

Miss Estelle H. Kezer, Newburyport, Mass., who has had wide experience in the cerebral palsy and general orthopedic fields, began her duties immediately as cerebral palsy coordinator.

George E. Reimer, the society's executive director, said she will help local societies to develop cerebral palsy program and to follow up with the activities now underway. This is part of the service to handicapped made possible by the annual sale of Easter seals.

"Cerebral palsy, one of the foremost causes of crippling, has handicapped 400,000 children throughout the nation, including some 12,000 in Pennsylvania," Reimer said. "Speech impairments, hearing and sight difficulties, and lack of motor control which makes even ordinary activities, as walking, eating and dressing a hardship, are a few results of this condition.

"Many of these handicaps can be corrected with proper treatment. Our program is being expanded to offer this service to as many cerebral palsied persons as possible."

Miss Kezer returned recently from Honolulu where she was orthopedic nursing consultant for four years, 1944-48, with the Territorial Department of Health, from 1938-44 she was orthopedic field supervisor for the Montana Department of Health, and she held the same position with the Massachusetts Department of Health during 1936-37, from 1932-36 she was a staff nurse with the Great Barrington Visiting Nurse association, South Berkshire Health Unit, Great Barrington, Mass.

Ward Patrol Leaders
Receive InstructionGreen Bar Council Discusses Names, Calls, Flags Of Each Patrol

Members of the Green Bar Council of Boy Scouts Troop XV4, met Sunday afternoon, in council room, at Mahoning Methodist church, with opening exercises by scoutmaster Bill Weitz.

The duties of patrol leaders were read by Donald Weisbaker, senior patrol leader. There was a brief review, and tenderfoot knots, given by the scoutmaster.

Discussion of patrol names, calls and flags of each patrol took place. Each patrol was instructed to have its own "yell." Group singing followed. Song books will soon be distributed to each patrol. Members of the troop are distributing "Go To Church Stickers" for all the churches of the ward, to be placed in windows of homes.

Birthday Club Meets
For Dinner Party

At the home of Mrs. George Huff of 312 North Cedar street, members of the Birthday Club gathered on Saturday evening, for a birthday dinner party.

A delicious chicken dinner was served, with all the trimmings. The hostess sister, Harriet Kennedy, assisted her in serving. Games of contest were the diversion of the evening, with Mrs. Nellie Park capturing the special. Mrs. Hugh Stewart was winner of first prize.

Mrs. Russell McConnell of 522 West Madison avenue, will be hostess to the next meeting of the club, in April.

Impressive Service
At Methodist Church

On Sunday morning, there was a very impressive service at Mahoning Methodist church, when the new Christian and American flags were dedicated, to flank either side of the church rostrum.

The flags were donated by a number of the members, as a memorial to their departed loved ones.

Monday evening, the official board met, with Leonard Blasdel presiding. Reports were given of the Sunday school work, by Lawrence Godwin, supt. R. M. Barnes reported for the committee, arranging for the 80th anniversary; Kenneth Gibson gave the treasurer's report, and the pastor, Rev. J. L. Petrie, outlined the Lenten program.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bigley and two children, have returned to Windham, Ohio, after a weekend visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. McOwen, 512

West Madison avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Bagley of Conner avenue. Billy the former's little son, visited with his grandparents here, for a month.

YOUTH BURNS LEG
WITH BLOW TORCH

Eugene Morse, aged 16 years, of R. D. 3, Wilmington road, was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital at 8:40 p. m. Monday for second degree burns of the left leg, between the knee and ankle.

The youth was injured when his trousers caught fire from a blow torch while working in the garage at his home.

Ministers Defeat
New Constitution

During the regular meeting of the New Castle Ministerial Association held Monday in the First Presbyterian church, proposal for a new constitution was defeated by a vote of the pastors.

Rev. J. Paul Graham, pastor of Third U. P. church, chairman of the constitution committee, conducted the second discussion on the new constitution and after some debate, the proposal was voted down.

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath conducted the period of devotions with Rev. Howard Redmond at the piano. Rev. Owen Shields, president, conducted the meeting. A report on available library books was given by Miss Alice Sterling.

The next meeting of the group will be conducted on Monday, March 21, at the First Presbyterian church.

Back 3,800 YearsYale Professor Completes Translation Of Oldest Code Of Laws In WorldNEW HAVEN, Conn., March 8.
—(INS)—A Yale professor has a word of consolation for Americans who don't like price controls—such controls, he says, are 3,800 years old.Professor Albrecht E. R. Goetze has just completed a translation of the oldest code of laws in the world, those of the Babylonian kingdom of Eshnunna which flourished on the east bank of the Tigris river between the 20th and 18th centuries B.C.And the professor says, he has discovered a sort of Babylonian OPA. The code opens with a price control list of such commodities as grain, wool, lard and copper.The professor adds that the code also contains statutes covering marriage dowries and assault and battery. In ancient Eshnunna, it appears, a citizen could be fined one pound of silver for biting the nose off another citizen.The tablets inscribed with the laws were discovered by Professor Goetze last year at the Iraq museum in Baghdad. They are said to be 200 years older than the code of Hammurabi.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

For some weeks Alexander Woolcott had been boasting to friends that a tony Boston society leader had become so intrigued by his mellifluous radio voice that she had asked if she could visit him next time she came down to New York.The lady arrived, unfortunately, a few days after Woolcott had taken off for Hollywood, but she was informed by the switchboard operator that his butler awaited her. Vastly impressed, she rang the buzzer of the Woolcott apartment, but fled in horror when she beheld a flunky in a coat several sizes too large for him—and no panties at all. She did not know, of course, that the coat was part of Woolcott's very best, full-dress suit, nor that the flunky was his great good friend, Noel Coward.Coward phoned Woolcott in Hollywood that evening to tell him the story. Woolcott indulgently forgave him after an initial burst of wrath, and then continued gossiping for a full half hour. Finally he reminded Coward happily, "I take it you have forgotten that it was you who called me. The bill must be over a hundred dollars by this time.""Probably," agreed Coward. "I guess I also forgot to tell you that I was calling you from your apartment."Based on copyrighted outlines produced by and a reserve officer of long standing, has been appointed director of the contact camps which embody various courses of military instruction and are designed to provide refresher training for all reservists residing in Lawrence and Mercer counties. Col. Jackson reported that plans to continue the camps through the month of June are being completed.Interesting and varied instruction was presented during the past weekend. Lt. Col. J. C. Wachman of the staff and administrative reserve, conducted courses in universal training and staff functions.

Those attending were also afforded some excellent educational training by Capt. Victor F. Thomas, CAC-RES, principal of Bessemer high school, who conducted a class on "method of instruction".Approximately 75 attendances were recorded over the weekend and it is believed that as a result of the interest shown, future sessions will be marked by an appreciable increase in attendance.British Statesman

Princeton Seniors
Will Present Play'How's Your Hukumbodo' Will Be Presented Thursday, Friday
Evenings At 8 O'ClockSenior class of the Princeton
High School in Slippery Rock Township has named Thursday and Friday evenings, March 10 and 11 for the presentation of their play
"How's Your Hukumbodo" which will be given in the school auditorium at 8 p.m. on each of the two evenings.The plot centers around a young lady, Harriet Smith who invited Anthony DuPaine to spend the weekend at her home. The revolting father goes on a sit-down strike.
Mr. Smith invites a tramp to take the role of Anthony DuPaine with the result that two DuPaines show up. To make matters worse the tramp is to give a lecture on a subject he has never heard about before. A missing string of pearls worth $50,000 adds to the hilarity of the play.

The parts include: Mr. Smith,

Earl Wilson; Harriet, Ann White;
Mrs. Smith, Helen Jones; Dorothy,
Joann Austin; the tramp, Charles Gross; policeman, Tom Hogue; butler, Russell Brown; Mrs. Richfield, Elsie Dean; Miss Mann,Evelyn Gibson; Anthony DuPaine, Joseph Mershimer. The play is directed by Mrs. Lois B. Poppeireiter.Losses on farms from fire are estimated at $99 millions annually.Bezique is a game of cards with

START LOSING FAT FIRST DAY

without starvation, harmful drugs, laxatives, exercise or massageYes, the Kyrion Plan, the new food tablet way to reduce, will help you lose up to 7 lbs. first 7 days—or you pay nothing. If your excess weight is caused by over-eating (and not glandular), the Kyrion Plan is designed to act 3 ways: (1) To help appease your hunger, to cut down your appetite automatically, yet you never feel hungry; (2) Includes nutritious elements to help maintain your energy while reducing; (3) Recommends in package many foods often falsely labeled in ordinary diets as "fattening." Endorsement by your physician recommended.

"Kyrion results have been absolutely astonishing. I am 27 years old, and have a 7-year-old daughter. When I started using Kyrion, I weighed 153 pounds, and felt awfully old and let-down. In 7 weeks, I lost 35 pounds. I used to feel sluggish and always tired. Now I feel so much younger and gayer. My friends and my husband can't get over the change that has taken place in 7 short weeks."REDUCE UP TO 7 POUNDS FIRST 7 DAYS...

State Senate Will Take Up Tax Program

HARRISBURG, March 8.—(INS)—Administration forces in the state senate today prepared to pave the way for consideration of the house-approved $440,000,000 tax program.

Senate leaders expect the bulk of Gov. James H. Duff's tax program will be released from committee today.

The outcome of the governor's proposal for re-enactment of the penny-a-bottle soft drinks levy hinges upon the recommendations of a special five-man sub-committee of the Senate Finance committee.

Possible Alternatives
The group, which has been studying possible alternate taxes for the "pop" levy for the past week, will report its finds to the finance committee today, according to Chairman James A. Getz (R) Allegheny. Duff's lieutenants are confident the controversial levy will be retained.

The sub-committee has been eyeing increased state inheritance and decedents' estates taxes as a substitute for the highly controversial "pop" tax. If recommended, the substitute taxes would be increased to the extent to provide the $27,000,000 expected during the next two years from the soft drinks tax.

Meanwhile, the administration snatched its proposal for a cent-a-gallon gasoline tax increase from a pigeon hole when the Senate Highways committee voted 21-1 to report the measure to the floor.

King' Candidates Named At College

Each of the four classes at Westminster College has nominated a "king" candidate in connection with the financial drive being staged by the Shares committee. The king will be crowned at a special student assembly in the gymnasium Wednesday evening.

The candidates are: Cyril Krivosh, Sharon, senior; Richard Wharton, Sewickley, junior; Albert Nichols, Rutherford, N. J., sophomore, and Paul Fenwick, Kenmore, N. Y., freshman.

Money raised by the drive will be divided among the Gordon College fund, the World Student Service fund and Church World Service.

Making Progress On Sesqui Plans

Neshannock Presbyterian Congregation To Receive Latest Reports Wednesday

(Special to The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, March 8.—Reports from the Sesqui-Centennial Steering and the Improvement committees will be heard by the congregation of the Neshannock Presbyterian church at a meeting called for 8:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Plans for the Sesqui-centennial to be observed this summer are progressing rapidly.

Temple Builders of the Presbyterian church will meet at 10 a. m. Wednesday in the church parlors for an all-day meeting. A luncheon will be served at noon.

Mrs. James P. Smith and Mrs. Frank Kaufman are in charge of the lunch and Mrs. Arthur O. Dunn will lead devotions.

"The Church—The Hope For China's Future," will be the subject for the meeting of the Senior Women's Missionary society in the church parlors, at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday. Miss Evelyn McFarland will have charge.

William G. Faddis of the art department of Westminster College, will deliver an illustrated lecture on the life of Christ as portrayed by the great painters in the U. P. church at 7:30 Wednesday.

Thomas Sarver of the U. P. church has been named superintendent of Young Peoples work of the Mercer Presbytery, according to Rev. Ferdimore Vogan, director of educational youth activities.

PULASKI

Pulaski P.T.A. will meet Wednesday evening, March 9, at 7:30 in the Pulaski Grade School building. An interesting musical program has been planned. The committee in charge of refreshments are Mrs. Gaylord Cameron, John Wharry, Mrs. Grace Cross and Mrs. Isabelle Wilson.

Westminster college students will star in a musical program to be presented Friday evening, March 11, in Pulaski in the Pulaski Methodist church. The program will start promptly at 8:15 p. m. The program will include such numbers as an Irish tenor, tenor baritone, soprano solo, piano solo, humorous baritone, and mezzo-soprano solo. Following the program there will be free refreshments. Free will offerings for the church building fund will be accepted.

CHANGE of LIFE?

Are you going through the functional "middle age" period peculiar to women (38 to 52 yrs.)? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel so nervous, high-strung, tired? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's Compound also has what doctors call a stomachic tonic effect!

City Council Hears February Reports

Gets Figures On Receipts During Month From City Departments

At the meeting of city council on Monday, Mayor Haven reported police receipts during February were $2,202.75. Inspector of plumbing Harold Dunlap reported receipts for last month of $114.50, and City Engineer John Street, received receipts of $820.81. The dog catcher, Jack Young, reported 43 dogs killed during February.

Council instructed Solicitor R. M. White to turn over to the Lawrence County Historical Society, old contracts for street lighting. The contracts show the progress of street illumination here. The first contract was for lighting 'Mahoningtown' after which incandescents succeeded arc lights.

Councilman Gibson introduced an ordinance Monday changing the name of Old Grandview Avenue to Frew Mill Road. The avenue is not opened. It extends from a point on the curve at the Genkinger property in Butler avenue to Frew Mill Road.

The city of Petaluma, Cal., is called "the world's egg basket"

WORKMAN INJURED

Richard Johnson, aged 19 years, of 716 Brooklyn avenue, employed as a laborer at the Shenango Pottery Co., was admitted to the Janneson Memorial hospital late Monday morning, suffering from a laceration of the scalp and possible brain injury, received when he fell while at work.

Birmingham, noted commercial city of England, gained its first importance from the restoration of Charles II, who first introduced the fashion of wearing metal ornaments, which that city undertook to supply.

HIBBARD-LAMMERT

MARRIAGE TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hibbard, Falls avenue, R. D. 8, announce the marriage of their daughter, Marjorie, to Eugene Lammert, of New Waterford, O. The ceremony was performed at Winchester, Va., on February 25 by Rev. L. M. Eisenberg of the Grace Lutheran church.

The bride wore a street length dress of ice blue taffeta with gray accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose buds and carnations and her only jewelry was a necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Lammert is employed by the Pennsylvania Power company and Mr. Lammert by the Kennam Manufacturing company, East Palestine, O.

The couple will reside at 1105 Highland avenue, this city.

Surprise Party

A surprise birthday party was held in the home of Mrs. Horace Needler, at her home on Cecil avenue, Saturday evening.

The evening was spent playing games, with prizes going to Mrs. Alta Horschler, Mrs. Dorothy Forbes and Mrs. Dorothy Bromley. A delicious lunch was served by the host, Mrs. Albert Sadler and daughters.

Mrs. Needler was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Happy Hour Club

Members of the Happy Hour club will meet Friday in the home of Mrs. Wendt Graham, of 88 South Lee avenue.

St. Patrick Event

Green and fair, rose Emerald Isle from the flower scented table laid in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Robert Bohn at the Front street residence of Edson W. Bohn on a recent evening.

After guests were seated the hostess, Miss Dorothy Bohn, lighted green and gold candles that shed light on a miniature of Blarney castle which stood in a shining lake.

The St. Patrick motif of emerald and gold added color to the lighted birthday cake and the place mats that were laid amid gifts.

The group then balloted for the ruler of fabulous Blarney castle, after which Edwin Meyers was crowned with ceremony as ruler and "King of Blarney."

With singing of Irish melodies and the Irish reel, the informal evening was concluded.

B. P. W. Club To Meet

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club, will meet on Wednesday evening, at 5:45, in the First Methodist church.

Speaker will be James R. Campbell of Evans City, who will take as his subject, "Hats."

Round-up Club

The Round-up club will meet Thursday evening in the club rooms, with hostesses to be: Mrs. A. J. Capezio, Mrs. Thomas Maciarelo, Mrs. Ruben Pratt, Mrs. John George and Mrs. Paul Scipio.

Approximately 55 per cent of all white births occur in hospitals.

What's Bid Club

Mrs. Jasper Donston of Mills way entertained members of the What's Bid club in her home on a recent evening.

Five hundred was the pastime of the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Robert Jenkins, Mrs. Ralph Conley and Mrs. Harry Earle. Mrs. Thomas Leonhardt was a special guest.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. George Forrester, of East Washington street, March 16.

W. C. T. U. and L. T. L.

Highland Union

Mrs. Oliver W. Hurst will be leader of the next assembly of Highland W. C. T. U. Thursday, April 7.

Mrs. F. J. Fox offered the opening prayer when the group gathered in the home of Mrs. James DeGarmo, 123 East Wallace avenue, with Mrs. Willis Alben as co-hostess. Using the parable of the sower and the soils, Mrs. Carl F. Cheers led devotions, closing with a temperance application.

Mrs. Elmer Delancy, Mrs. David Nesbit and Mrs. Cheers offered prayers. Miss Leonore Gealy, program leader, introduced Mrs. Cyril Smith, who gave an informative account of work at the City Rescue Mission, of which her husband is superintendent.

Reports were given of a party at the Almira Home, February's project and flower mission accomplishments. Highland union also contributed to Highland L. T. L.'s "goat fund." The group voted to contribute to a fund for use at the Diamond Jubilee convention in Philadelphia this year.

Members are to write their senators and representatives in support of the Bryson bill, formerly known as the Capper bill. They are also to protest against legalizing betting on horse-racing and legalizing bingo in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Nesbit, who reported three new members, distributed temperance leaflets for use in Bible schools and in getting new members. Mrs. Thomas Lindsey closed with prayer.

Lunch was served from a tea table, decorated with St. Patrick's Day colors.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food In a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As age advances the "oil stomach" needs more help. The reason is this: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

CONNIE MACK GETS SET FOR 49TH A. L. SEASON

FROM THE DUGOUT of the Philadelphia Athletics training camp in West Palm Beach, Fla., Connie Mack gets ready to swing into action for his 49th season as an American league manager and boss of the A's. With him here are some of his chief lieutenants. From left: Jimmy Dykes, Mack, Al Simmons and Wally Moses, all former Athletic stars. (International)

Tri-County Floor Tourney Opens Play Tonight

Washington Hi Floor Utilized

Eight Schools Enter, Senior Players Barred, Three Games On Card Tonight

High school basketball teams from Lawrence, Butler and Mercer counties begin play in the annual tri-county tournament tonight on the Washington Junior High court. The first game starts at 7 o'clock.

Eight schools, five from Lawrence county, have entered teams in the tourney. This year's players personnel will be restricted to boys who will be eligible for competition next year. This should give valuable experience to some of the newcomers and also adds an element of surprise to the tournament. With the exception of East Brook, all teams will be using men who were not regulars during the past campaign. How each quintet's rookies stack up in tournament competition will go a long way to determine the winner.

Losers in tonight's first round will be eligible for the consolation playoff tourney which will be run concurrently with the championship eliminations.

Trophies and Prizes

Valuable trophies and prizes have been procured to award the championship team, runnerup and individual performers.

A large delegation of fans from the three-county area is expected to follow their favorite team to the tournament. In addition many New Castle fans will welcome the opportunity to see these high class county high school teams in action.

Tonight's schedule pits Zellenople against East Brook at 7, Mars meets Shenango at 8 and New Wilmington faces Wampum at 9.

Mele Clouts Ball

Sarasota, Fla., March 8.—(INS)—Sam Mele, the Boston Red Sox rightfielder, rates second these days to rookie Walt Dropo as the big gun of the Sox.

Sam was a 300 hitter his freshman year, but last season injuries threw him off stride. But a week's head start on the other outfield candidates has given the young slugger the edge to date and his long ball has been shaded only by the tremendous clouting of Dropo, the rookie first base candidate.

Intra-Squad Game

Bradenton, Fla., March 8.—(INS)—The Boston Braves play their first intra-squad game today.

The Browns and the Cooney's will battle it out with just about every player in camp taking his turn on the field.

Yesterday, Umpire Bill Stewart dropped into camp to explain new rule changes for pitchers and base runners.

Lou Ponders List

Tucson, Ariz., March 8.—Manager Lou Ponder pondered over a list of more than 30 names today in an effort to make up two teams for the Cleveland Indians' first intra-squad game tomorrow at Tucson, Ariz.

Holdout Hank Ruszkowski, the rookie catcher, was the only Indian not in the fold today. Five other holdouts agreed to terms yesterday with President Bill Veech. They were Bob Lemon, Joe Gordon, Gene Bearden, Johnny Berardino and Robert Avila.

First U.P. and Third U.P. In Important Class A Church League Wins At "Y"

Wampum moved closer to the second half class A church league championship honors by defeating Epworth 42 to 34 last night at the "Y".

Epworth had previously won the first half crown.

Most of Wampum scoring was confined to the efforts of Procopio, Marshall, and Ray Jackson who combined to give the victors 40 markers. Frank Reed had 11 for Epworth and Zeke Wainio chipped in 9 more.

Wampum led 8 to 6 at the end of the first quarter and increased the margin of their lead by 1 to 3 points each period in the close, exciting contest.

First U.P. On Top

First U.P. emerged as a real power to challenge the Wampum title hopes by trouncing St. George 62 to 37. First U.P. led 17 to 4 at the quarter and were never threatened. The winners used their subs frequently and to good advantage as all managed to score at least 4 points. Gregg Thomas and Hab Jackson combined for 22 to top the First U.P. pointmakers. Honors for St. George were well divided. Third U.P. outscored First Congregational 20 to 8 in the third period of their contest and coasted to a 32 to 39 win. Tom Robinson again led the Third U.P. quintet with 17 markers while Steinbrink and Matthews split 16 for the losers.

Midland Plays Latrobe Tonight In WPIAL Class A Elimination Game

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—(INS)—It was pretty apparent today that either Homestead is vastly overrated or there are more tough teams in the WPIAL Class A section than anyone previously estimated.

Homestead just managed to turn on the power in the fourth quarter at Pitt Stadium last night to eliminate Charleroi, 52-46, in a quarter-final round game.

Midland vs. Latrobe

In the opening round, Homestead had edged Brentwood 46-41. Neither score would indicate that the Steelers are a co-favorite with Aliquippa to win the championship.

Tonight the Midland Leopards get into the fray against Latrobe at the stadium. The Beaver Valley boys are picked to win by a close margin.

This is the first elimination contest for both as they drew opening round byes.

VILLANOVA AWAITS TOURNAMENT BID

VILLANOVA, Pa., March 8.—(INS)—The Villanova College quintet today awaited an official bid to participate in the national collegiate basketball tournament following a 56-47 win over Georgetown.

Lou Andreas, NCAA district 2 selection committee chairman, had announced shortly before last night's game in the Villanova fieldhouse that Villanova was "in" the tournament if it could get past Georgetown.

Falcons To Play Alpha Sig Five

The Polish Falcon's will play the Alpha Sig Phi fraternity of Westminster College tonight at the Falcon court.

In the preliminary at 7:15 the Polish Falcon Reserves will meet a fast local team.

SENIOR "Y" LEAGUE

Senior "Y" league games tonight on the "Y" hardwood are as follows: 7, Civics vs Wings; 8, G. I. Shine vs Rebels; 9, Shamrocks vs Chiefs.

SHAMROCKS TO MEET

East Side Shamrocks will hold an important business meeting tonight at the "Y" at 7:30. All members are requested to be present.

The dispute between the New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians over the signing of the negro baseball player, points up the reason for the reserve clause in baseball contracts.

Training Camp News In Brief (INS)

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 8.—(INS)—Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees said today that if outfielders Joe DiMaggio and Charley Keller fail to recover from their injuries, they will be replaced by Hank Bauer and Gene Woodling.

Bauer made a good impression last fall, and the Yanks will obtain Woodling from San Francisco immediately.

Hodges Homers

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 8.—(INS)—Gil Hodges gave promise today as qualifying as Brooklyn's missing link—a power hitter. The big fellow knocked a ball over the center field fence in the Dodgers' practice game yesterday.

Leo Likes Rookies

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 8.—(INS)—Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants said today that he will give four of his rookies every chance to make good this spring. They are shortstop Bill Jennings, second baseman Bob Hoffman, outfielder Gail Henley and pitcher George Spencer.

Roller-Hockey Game Wednesday

New Castle Yellow Jackets Will Clash With Glassport Team At Arena At 8:45

New Castle's undefeated Yellow Jackets roller-hockey team will play the powerful Glassport team at the Arena Wednesday evening at 8:45 o'clock. The locals will battle hard to keep their record unsullied.

Glassport has a fine team and they will come here to stop high-flying Yellow Jackets coached by the veteran Les Stoops.

Seek Championship

The Yellow Jackets are out to win the 1949 championship and will have their strongest lineup available.

The admission to the hockey games is 50 cents. There are no reserved seats. For an evening of thrills and spills see the big hockey game here tomorrow night, in the newly renovated spacious Arena on Grove street.

Athletics Have 11 Farm Clubs

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—(INS)—The Philadelphia Athletics added the 11th team to their farm system today and announced selection of managers for the others.

Arthur H. Ehlers, head of the A's farm system, disclosed that Kewanee, Ill., of the Class C Central Association, joined the chain on a working agreement basis, the manager has not yet been named.

Take Youngsters

The addition gives the A's two class C clubs. The other one is Youngstown, O., of the Middle Atlantic circuit.

Savannah's class A Sally League team will be managed by Frank Skaff. Jim Deshong will control the residents of Lincoln, of the Western league, also class A.

The other managers and their clubs are:

George Staller, Martinville (Va.), Carolina League (B); William (Brick) Hoffner, Welch (W. Va.), Appalachian League (D); Ed Morgan, Youngstown; Homer Cox, Portsmouth (D), Ohio-Indiana (D); Archy Templeton, Lexington (N. C.), Carolina State League (D); Joe Antolick, Tarboro (N. C.), Coastal Plain League (D); Bill Peterman, Multie (Ga.) Georgia-Florida League (D); and Manuel (Red) Norris, Red Springs (N. C.), Tobacco State League (D).

Fred Wimer Stars With 27 Points As Morellas Defeat Akron 62 To 61 At Cortland

The Morella Dairy Bar quintet advanced to the semi-finals of the Cortland, Ohio, senior tourney last night by edging the Akron Joe's by a whisker 62 to 61 as Freddy Wimer got "hot" and dumped in 27 points. The Morellas trailed the first period 17 to 15 but led at the half 33 to 28. Wimer scored the winning field goal with ten seconds left to play.

Friday night the Morellas will return to Cortland for a semi-final round game. Should the Morellas win Friday they will enter the finals Saturday at Cortland. Wednesday the Morellas will play at Hubbard, Ohio, tourney meeting the Columbiana team, at 10:15 o'clock.

College All-Stars Will Battle April 2

NEW YORK, March 8.—(INS)—The east-west collegial all-star basketball game at Madison Square Garden April 2 shaped up today as a battle between rival pivot men.

West coach Vadel Peterson of Utah has nominated 6-foot 8-inch Ed Macauley of St. Louis university, while Kentucky's Alex Groza will play center for the easterners.

The pair, outstanding collegial centers in the nation, opposed each other early this season when St. Louis squeezed out a victory over Kentucky. Groza outscored Macauley, 13 to 12, on that occasion.

Evans City Loses To Oakmont 42-39

PITTSBURGH, March 8.—Oakmont defeated Evans City 42 to 39 in a Class B WPIAL quarter-finals playoff in Dormont last night.

The winners, Section 13 champs, spoiled a 23 game winning streak for the favored Evans City quint, Section 12 titleholders.

Oakmont will meet the winner of tonight's Mt. Jackson-Elders Ridge clash in the semi-finals on the Dormont high hardwood Friday.

Trout Shipment IS DUE FRIDAY

Clinton White, fish warden, announced today that a load of trout will arrive at the Pulaski post office Friday for distribution in Deer Creek. White reports that about 100 sportmen responded to the call last Friday for stocking of Little Neshannock Creek, a very gratifying sight.

Burton Defeats Cuban Fighter

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.—(INS)—Cuban Chico Varona's spunk failed to overcome Gene Burton's boxing skill last night in their 10-round meeting at the Philadelphia arena.

Burton won by a unanimous decision. His know how and punches consistently ended Varona's courageous attempts, and all but knocked the Cuban out of the bout in the last round.

The defeat was the first in the U. S. for Chico, who had chalked up six straight wins in previous Philadelphia matches.

WAGNER AND FOX TO STAGE ANOTHER PIER NINE BRAWL

CLEVELAND, March 8.—(INS)—Dick Wagner of Portland, Ore., and Billy Fox of Philadelphia will get a chance to stage a repeat of their recent brawl, Thursday, March 10, in Cleveland in an 11-frame bout.

The roughhouse, lightweightweights, whose wild battle ended in a brief riot after Fox was TKO'd in the ninth round, were signed recently to go the unusual distance.

Matchmaker Larry Atkins said the 11-fight bout was decided on as a compromise between the two fighters. Atkins said Fox had sought a 15-round clash while Wagner wanted only 10 rounds. Both agreed on the lucky number 11.

Lift Suspension

A 30-day suspension against Fox for "ungentlemanly conduct" was lifted by the Cleveland Boxing commission after Billy apologized publicly following the bout and again to the commission.

A half dozen policemen were called into the ring to quiet Fox after he had been declared the loser in the bout.

Tony Zale Wants Bout With Cerdan

NEW YORK, March 8.—(INS)—Representatives of middleweight champion Marcel Cerdan conferred with the Tournament of Champions Monday regarding a return bout between the Frenchman and Tony Zale, former titleholder from Gary, Ind.

Sam Pian, co-manager of Zale, said Tony will start training immediately but will need several tune-up fights and will not be ready for Cerdan before mid-June. The bout will be held in Jersey City, Chicago or New York.

Trout Shipment Arrives Thursday

Clinton White, fish warden, announced today that a shipment of brown and rainbow trout will arrive at the New Wilmington post office at 11:30 o'clock, Thursday for distribution in the Little Neshannock creek.

White announced also that the shipment for Pulaski postoffice Friday will arrive at 3:30 o'clock for Deer creek.

Mounties Meet Elders Ridge Five Tonight

Mt. Jackson's Chances Ride On Condition Of Bill Emery's Knee; Opponents Tall

Mt. Jackson High basketball team is playing at Dormont tonight in the second round of the WPIAL Class B elimination series. Elders Ridge, Section 24 champs, are the opponents and figure to test the Mounties to capacity. The boys from near Indiana, Pa., average over six feet per man and play a rugged type of basketball.

Depends On Emery

The chances of victory for the Maroon and Gray ride on the condition of Bill Emery's knee. The Mountie star twisted the joint a week ago Monday in New Brighton and has not been able to practice since then. Emery has been under a doctor's care all week and if the knee responds to treatment satisfactorily, the local champs have a good chance of advancing to the semi-finals.

Three and possibly four bus loads of North Beaver fans will make the trip to Dormont. Many others will follow in private cars. The team will leave Mt. Jackson school at 4 o'clock and the fans' busses leave from the same place one hour later.

K. Pulaski Enters Valley Tournament

K. Pulaski Big Five basketball team will play its first game in the East Liverpool cage tourney Thursday night, March 10.

The K. P.s are confident of that they will give a good account of themselves in the well-known valley tournament.

As conditioners for the big tilt on Thursday, K. P. business manager Joey Danish has booked two topflight contests for his team this week.

Wampum Merchants invade the K. P. hall tonight for a game beginning at eight o'clock. The K. P. Cubs are scheduled to play the prelim.

On Wednesday, the tourney bound Kaypees travel to East Brook to meet the City-County league champion Boosters. The Cubs will play the Brookers in the seven o'clock preliminary.

City Recreation Tourney Will Resume Play Wednesday Night

The fourth annual city recreation league basketball tourney got under way at the Washington High gym last night, with two fine games being played before a fair sized crowd. There will be two more games Wednesday and the finals played on Thursday.

Opening the tourney last evening in the Midget division, the Aces of the Mahoning division handed the Steelers of the National division a defeat by the score of 15 to 13. Torsello and Perotta did the bulk of the scoring for the Aces, with Demase and Mastrangelo being the big guns for the Steelers. The Aces won the right to meet the Washington Cubs on Wednesday night at 7 o'clock for the Midget championship.

Irish Win Game

In the Junior division the Irish of the Mahoning division met the Yankees of the National division, with the Irish winning 37 to 18. R. Priscarro and J. Pecarro with 16 points and 10 points respectively did the bulk of the scoring, with Richards and Palone best for the losers. The Irish won the right to meet the Bears on Thursday at 7 p. m. to determine the Junior championship.

The Wednesday schedule:

7—Washington Cubs vs Mahoning Aces (championship).
8 p. m.—Two midget teams.
The admission on Wednesday will be 10c for students and 25c for adults.

All lovers of basketball are urged to see this midget championship game, as these boys possess outstanding ability for their age.
